

Neighbors Brave Heat to Assist

CELIA—In spite of 106-degree heat Tuesday, July 13, several friends and neighbors gathered at the O. A. Hammerberg farm and brought their tractors, mowers, rakes, sweeps and a stacker. They mowed hay for Mr. Hammerberg, also started the stacking. By Wednesday evening, July 14, which was a cool day with temperatures in the 80's, 50 tons had been put up for feed during the winter.

Mr. Hammerberg hasn't been allowed to do any heavy work for several months on account of his health.

Those doing the work were Emil Colfack and son, Denton, Frank Kilmurry, Lawrence Smith, Duane Beck, Gene Livingston, Dorothy Scott, Bob Pease, Connie Frickel and son, Donnie, Alex and Victor Frickel, Merrill Smith, Stanley Johnson, Lee Terwilliger, Linford Sweet and Mark Hendricks.

Several ladies brought food and assisted Mrs. Hammerberg on Wednesday. They were Mrs. Emil Colfack and Shirley, Mrs. Lawrence Smith, Mrs. Merrill Smith and Doris and Mrs. Duane Beck. Mr. Blow and D. F. Scott and several children were visitors.

Rev. and Mrs. Phipps of Atkinson were Wednesday, July 14, visitors at the Joe Hendricks home.

Mark Hendricks, Clarence Focken, Emil Colfack and Mr. and Mrs. Milton McKathnie attended the school district meeting in O'Neill Wednesday morning, July 14.

Sunday evening visitors at the O. A. Hammerberg home were Alex Forsythe, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Deming and son, Robert, Mrs. Lottie Keidel and son, David.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Eldridge of Ft. Leonard Wood, Mo., were dinner guests at the Lee Terwilliger home last Thursday. They attended the Chester Staples funeral at Butte. Their son, Klaus, (who will be remembered as the German boy the Terwilligers brought back from Germany) was away on a Boy Scout tour to New Mexico.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Terwilliger spent Sunday afternoon and evening at Bloomfield to attend church services.

'Bud' Colwell, 85, Dies in Sioux City

SPENCER — Orlow ("Bud") Colwell, 85, a resident of Holt and Boyd counties since 1913, died Sunday, July 11, in Sioux City. Funeral services were conducted at 10 a.m. Tuesday, July 13, from the Methodist church in Spencer.

Rev. Marjorie Johnson officiated and burial was in the Union cemetery at Spencer in the family plot.

Music during the service was furnished by a male quartette composed of Lynn Oatman, P. O. Friedrich, and Richard and Donald Black, accompanied by Mrs. P. Friedrich.

Palmbury were J. M. Pucelik, Ralph Black, Melvin J. Jakob, Russell Angus, Harry Peppel, and A. A. Barden.

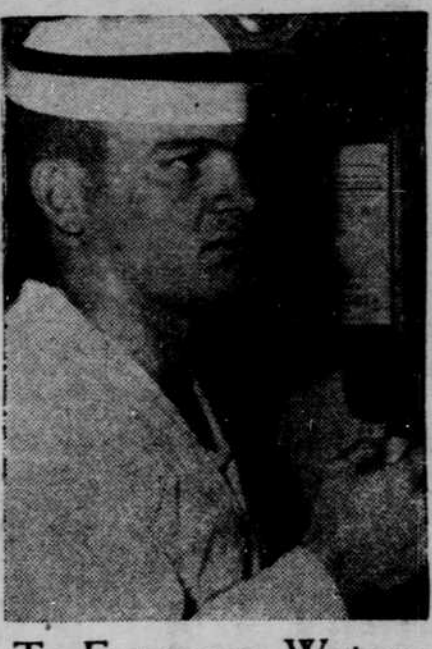

Orlo ("Bud") Colwell was born at Burkley, Ia., on December 28, 1868. He came to Ft. Randall, S.D., when he was 17-years-old and for two years he supplied the army with posts cut from the Gross area near the "Nine-Mile spring." He was called back to work on the family farm in Iowa and remained there until 1913.

On October 23, 1898, he was married to Miss Tina Graham at Carroll, Ia. In 1913, Mr. and Mrs. Colwell moved to Spencer and he lived in the Spencer-O'Neill territory until his death.

During most of these years he lived south of Spencer on the place now known as the Malloy ranch.

His wife, Tina, preceded him in death on January 31, 1951; also preceding him in death were his parents and 10 brothers and sisters.

Surviving him are his brother-in-law, Henry Hargens of Sidney, and several nieces and nephews.

To European Waters

Midn. Arthur R. Look of Spencer (above), a student at the U.S. Naval academy, Annapolis, Md., mans the power control board in one of the engine rooms aboard the heavy cruiser USS Des Moines. Upon receiving instructions from the ship's bridge, Midshipman Look adjusts the steam power for the amount of speed requested. Midshipman Look is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Albert F. Look of Spencer. More than 3,000 midshipmen embarked at Norfolk, Va., June 7 in 19 ships cruising to European waters on the summer's first midshipman training cruise.

Mrs. Emma L. Bose Dies at Laurel

Mrs. Emma Louise Bose, 79, recently died at Laurel. She was born in Germany and came to America in 1905, living in Dixon county until 1917, when she moved to Laurel.

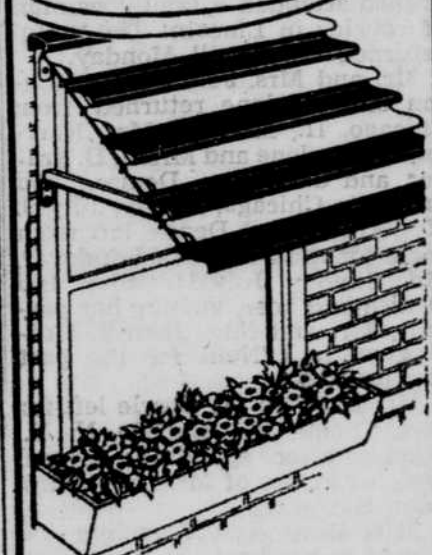

Survivors include: Daughters — Mrs. William Hinze of O'Neill; Mrs. Arthur Linnerman of Stockton, Calif.; Mrs. O. C. Jensen of Seattle, Wash.; Mrs. Ivan Holm of Martinsburg; Mrs. Willard Lewis of Craig; Mrs. William Götter of Laurel; sons — Carl of Gary, Ind., and Herbert of Van Nuys, Calif.

NIECE DIES

AMELIA — Mrs. August Pospishe received word Saturday of the death of her little niece, Rosanne Kobza of Dwight. The little girl had not been ill, and was found dead in the doorway of the barn only about five minutes after leaving the house.
