Centennial Pageant State Fair Feature

600 Nebraska City Actors to Appear

LINCOLN—The story of Nebraska's history, dramatically presented in the form of a territorial centennial pageant, will be one of the highlights of the 1954 state fair, it was announced by Fair Board Secretary Ed Schultz.

First showing of the pageant will be on Saturday night, September 4, at a special reopening. It will be repeated in front of the grandstand on Sunday night, September 5.

Fairground gates will swing open for the preopening at 6 p.m. on Saturday. In addition to the pageant, the midway will be in operation.

The pageant will be presented by more than 600 actors from Nebraska City, all of them garbed in the period to be depicted. Played in front of a 350-foot stage, the narrative type presentation will feature 25 to 35 scenes of authentic Nebraska history.

The tentative outline of the pageant calls for an opening scene featuring the arrival of Lewis and Clark in what was to become Nebraska territory. Other events to be depicted will include the establishment of the first Ft. Kearny, the treaty with the Pawnee Indians, the first territorial fair, the coming of the railroad, and sale of slaves.

EWING—Rita, a small daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Rotherham, became ill at her home on Friday, July 9.

She was taken to Dr. W. J. Bennie at Clearwater. After examination, he sent her to the Antelope Memorial hospital where Rita underwent surgery for the removal of a ruptured appendix about 10 o'clock that night.

Rita is the seventh child of the Rotherham family. She celebrated her seventh birthday on July 7, by the way is the seventh month. Her operation missed being performed on the seventh hour.

Truckload of Cattle Upsets
CLEARWATER—A truck driver and a youth accompanying him, whose names were not learned here, were bruised but not seriously hurt in an accident four miles east of Clearwater about 7 o'clock Sunday evening.

The semi-trailer truck, loaded with dairy cattle from South Dakota, overturned when the driver leaned out of the cab to inspect a tire and lost control of the vehicle.

The driver jumped from the cab, pushing the boy with him to the floor of the cab as he did so. The cab came loose from the trailer and barely missed the driver as it "jumped over" him. One of the cows had leg fractures, but the other animals were sent on.

Hangar Burns at Creighton
CREIGHTON—Fire of undetermined origin about 8:30 a.m. Tuesday destroyed a hangar and two planes at the Creighton Municipal airport.

Two planes were removed to safety. The front part of the structure housed the office and work shop, and the hangar was in the rear section.

Insurance was carried on the building.
