National Hereford Show at State Fair

LINCOLN—The Nebraska state fair, famous for its high quality livestock shows, has announced plans for another outstanding event during the 1954 exposition, September 5-10, inclusive.

The event will be the Cornhusker centennial national Hereford show, which is expected to attract entries from a wide area. A total of $5,000 in open class premium awards will be offered, according to Fair Board Secretary Ed Schultz.

This will be the second time that a national Hereford show has been held in connection with the state fair. The first time was in 1947 when 300 head of the finest Herefords from all over the United States were on exhibit. National Angus and Red Poll shows also have been held in connection with the fair.

"We have scheduled the Cornhusker centennial national Hereford show in line with our policy of bringing the people of Nebraska the very best in livestock contests," said Don Thompson, superintendent of beef. "We expect a large amount of interest and a large number of entries."

4 Named Admirals in State's 'Navy'

A number of north-Nebraska persons active in Boy Scouting have received commissions as admirals in the Nebraska "navy," from Gov. Robert B. Crosby.

Those from this area who have received the citation include: District Judge D. R. Mounts of O'Neill, who is the North-Central district chairman; George Hammond of O'Neill, who is the district finance chairman; Dr. C. M. Eason of O'Neill, who was the community finance chairman; Victor Harley of Chambers, who was the community finance chairman.

These citations were received in recognition of work done by these scouters in the Scout area finance campaign last fall.
