

Mr. and Mrs. Bryson L. Braziel... wed in Sunday church rite.—O'Neill Photo Co.

Leona Rae Kazda, Bryson L. Braziel Exchange Vows

ATKINSON—Miss Leona Rae Kazda, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred E. Kazda of Atkinson, and Bryson L. Braziel, son of Mr. and Mrs. T. A. Braziel of Lincoln, were united in marriage at the Methodist church in Atkinson on Sunday, August 8. Rev. E. G. Hughes, pastor, performed the 2:30 o'clock double ceremony.

Baskets of lavender and white gladioli and phlox against a background of ferns and candelabra decorated the church altar. The bride, given in marriage by her father, chose a floor-length gown of lace and tulle fashioned with a Peter Pan collar, fitted bodice and long tapering sleeves. The full-skirt had a plenum of net over satin.

Her fingertip veil of imported silk illusion fell from a Juliet cap of lace applique and seed pearls. Her bouquet was of white carnations and pink sweetheart roses. The tradition of something old, something new, something borrowed, something blue and a penny in her shoe was carried out by the bride.

The maid-of-honor, Miss Lodiema Wefso of Atkinson, wore a gown of aqua net over taffeta. She carried a colonial bouquet of white gladioli and sweetheart roses. The bridesmaid, Miss Patty Kutscher of Lincoln, was gowned in a dress of pink net over taffeta. She, too, carried a colonial bouquet of gladioli and sweetheart roses.

Roger T. Braziel of Lincoln was bestman for his brother, Donald Tyrrel and Kaye Spence, both of Lincoln, ushered. The bridegroom and his attendants were attired in dark trousers and white dinner jackets. They wore red boutonnières.

Miss Elaine Harshfield of Atkinson, vocalist, sang "Because," "I Love You Truly" and "The Lord's Prayer," accompanied by Onie McClurg of Atkinson, organist.

The bride's mother chose a dress of navy blue lace and crepe and the bridegroom's mother wore a pale blue linen dress. Both mothers wore corsages of red carnations and roses.

A reception in the church parlors followed the wedding ceremony. It was served by the women of the WSCS, Circle II. The wedding cake was baked and decorated by the bride's aunt, Mrs. Anna Holz of Ewing. Mrs. Charles Peterson, Atkinson, was in charge of the guest book and the Misses Mary Ann Kahler and Frances Gotschall, both of Atkinson, were in charge of the gifts.

For traveling the bride wore a two-piece dress of coral linen with white accessories. After a wedding trip through Canada the couple will be at home at 2771 South 34th st., Lincoln.

Mrs. Braziel attended Atkinson high school and before her marriage was employed by the Lincoln Telephone & Telegraph Co. Mr. Braziel attended the University of Nebraska where he was a member of Delta Sigma Pi. He is now employed by the same telephone company.

Out-of-town guests present at the wedding reception were: Mr. and Mrs. Don Syrell, Mr. and Mrs. Roger Spence, Mr. and Mrs. Roger Braziel, Mrs. Anna Holz, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Wright, Charlotte and Conna, Mr. and Mrs. Harrison Hovey, Elvon Hamilton, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Mitchell, Mr. and Mrs. Hull, Mr. and Mrs. Stanton Clark, Mr. and Mrs. Everett Johnson and sons and Myrl Cady and daughter.
