

Sunset Banquet
Date Is Announced

EWING—The sunset banquet, an annual event honoring all in the community who have reached their 70th birthday anniversary, will be held Thursday, September 16, it was announced at a recent meeting of the Methodist Women's Society of Christian Service.

The following chairman were appointed: Mrs. J. L. Pruden, invitations; Mrs. Harold Harris, programs; Mrs. R. V. Saiser, menu; and Mrs. William Spence, tables.

Mrs. R. G. Rocky presided at the session when names were drawn for the refreshment com-mittes for the coming year. Cleaning and redecorating the church kitchen were discussed and it was planned to use this as a project for a later date.

Articles for the silent auction were donated by Mrs. Frank Schmidt and Mrs. Sis Ebbensgaard.

An officers meeting was held on 2 p.m., Wednesday, August 18, at the church parlors. Quarterly reports were made.

Mrs. William Spence had charge of the devotional period. Miss Anna Van Zandt gave a reading and Mrs. Sis Ebbensgaard presented the lesson for the afternoon. Guests were Mrs. Dewitt Gunther, Mrs. Peter Roudybush, Florence and Iris Van Ostrand and Mrs. Laura Adrian of Wichita, Kans., a former member of the society.

Luncheon was served by Mrs. Andrew Olson and Mrs. L. A. Hobbs.

County Fair
Main Discussion—

PAGE—Taking part in the county fair by exhibiting, demonstrating and entering the style show was the main discussion when the Nifty Needlers 4-H club met at Artha McClure's home Wednesday, August 11. The leaders planned to take the exhibit to Chambers Tuesday, August 17.

The members also plan to enter a float in the community day parade at Page.

Fruit waldorf, an attractive fruit salad, and cheese circle, another colorful salad, were made by Faye Irene Ballantyne. Charlene Fusselman made an appetizing vegetable plate.

The 1954 4-H pins were given to each girl and leader. Artha McClure and Linda Smith, with the help of their mothers, served a lunch.

Twenty-six blues, 28 reds and 24 whites were received by club members at the achievement day program in O'Neill.—By Connie Riege, news reporter.

Bronze Star to Sergeant Boyle

A bronze star medal, the fourth highest valor medal awarded by the United States government, has been presented, belatedly, to Sgt. Donald E. Boyle, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Boyle of O'Neill.

The citation reads: "For exemplary conduct in ground combat against the armed enemy while assigned as private, 263d Infantry regiment, on or about 4 February 1945, in the European theater of operations."

The presentation was made last month at Schweinfurt, Germany. News of the award reached the parents here last week in a letter from their son dated July 29.

Sergeant Boyle enlisted in the army in 1943 and saw rugged duty in France and Germany during World War II. Prior to that time, however, he was in Alaska. He was in Germany when the war ended.

In May of this year he reenlisted for another three years and has now decided to make the army a career.

coming school year. The Johnsons also visited Mrs. Johnson's uncle, Ed Bausch, at Lee enroute home.
