Kennedy - Miles Nuptial Rites in Amelia Church

AMELIA—Miss Colleen Kennedy, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. B. Kennedy of Amelia, and Arlen Miles, son of Mr. and Mrs. Gerald F. Miles of O'Neill, were united in marriage following a nuptial mass at St. Joseph's Catholic church in Amelia Saturday, August 14. Rev. Francis Price, pastor, officiated at the wedding rite.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, chose a waltz-length gown of embroidered tulle and fan-pleated tulle over satin, fashioned with a bouffant skirt. Her lace edged illusion veil fell from a crown of iridescent sequin encrusted leaves. She carried a bouquet of lavender carnations and a pink pearl rosary, a gift from the bridegroom, on a prayer book.

Miss Sandra Gilman, maid-of-honor, wore a waltz-length gown of blue nylon over taffeta and carried a colonial bouquet of painted daisies.

Robert Miles was bestman for his brother. Ushers were Ronald Murphy, a cousin of the bridegroom, and Hale Kennedy, brother of the bride.

Lee O'Malley was vocal soloist and Miss Donna Rae Petersen played the wedding music.

Following the wedding ceremony, a breakfast was given for the bridal party and their immediate families at the home of the bride's parents.

Mrs. Miles was graduated from Atkinson high school and until her marriage taught in rural schools. Mr. Miles is a graduate of St. Mary's academy. Until his enlistment in the air force he was employed by the Holt County Independent.

The double-ring service was solemnized by Rt. Rev. Msgr. James A. Hartmann.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride chose a ballerina-length gown of blue lace over satin, featuring a bouffant skirt and a bodice styled with a Peter Pan collar. She carried a bouquet of lavender orchids and stephanotis. Her fingertip veil of blue illusion net cascaded from a blue sequin hat.

Mrs. W. M. Singer of San Leandro, Calif., was matron-of-honor for her sister. She wore a ballerina-length mauve rayon chambray gown and a mauve sequin hat. She carried a nosegay bouquet of carnations, gladioli and rosebuds.

Bestman was John E. Rohde, brother of the bride, and another brother, T. V. Rohde, was usher.

A wedding breakfast for members of the wedding party and invited guests at the Sky Trail followed the ceremony. A reception was held at the home of the bride's parents in the afternoon. Among those attending were Mrs. Guy Cole of Emmet and Mrs. Alice Bridges of O'Neill. The bride's parents are former O'Neillites.

Slack-Wells Rites in Lynch Church

REDBIRD—Miss Shirley Slack, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Slack of Redbird, became the bride of Lyle Wells, son of Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Wells, at a quiet double-ring 2 p.m. ceremony at Lynch Sunday, August 15. Rev. Anna Nelson, pastor of the church, officiated in the presence of the couple's immediate relatives.

The bride wore a navy blue suit with red accessories. The only jewelry worn by the bride was a pair of rhinestone earrings, a gift from her sister.

The maid-of-honor, Joy Slack, sister of the bride, wore a coffee-color beige two-piece dress with white accessories.

The bridegroom wore a suit of navy blue, the same color as the bride's suit. The bestman, Gary Wilson, friend of the bridegroom, wore a light gray suit.

The bride's mother appeared in a plum colored dress while the bridegroom's mother wore navy blue.

The bride was graduated from Lynch high school with the class of 1933. She taught one term in a Holt county rural school four miles from her home. Mrs. Wells will continue her teaching.

The bridegroom has been employed at the Frank Heiser farm. The bride and bridegroom departed for a trip to Texas. They will visit the bride's brother, Irvin Slack, and family.

The newlyweds' departure for the wedding trip was hilariously delayed when several small Lynch girls, friends of the couple, emptied the luggage.
