

Chambers Legion Post in Big Year Membership Mark Is Highest Ever

CHAMBERS—The Chambers Legion post opens a busy fall season with its annual membership drive. The membership committee consists of Bud Spath, chairman; Cleo Alderson, Don Dankert and Stanley Lambert. The post can boast of a year of community service with an active concern for child welfare, American citizenship and community cooperation. The 1954 membership total of 42 surpassed all recent years. The Legion sponsored the church athletic program, which had its start with an enthusiastic 1953 baseball season, had an equally successful 1953-'54 basketball season. The 1954 church league baseball campaign reaches its climax on the next two Saturday afternoons when the three top teams—Ballagh, Bethany and Amelia Methodist—compete for the handsome trophy presented to the winners by the local Legion post. E. R. Carpenter is the sports promoter and child welfare chairman. Looking ahead, the Chambers Legion organization plans an eventful fall season with a celebration on veterans' day November 11. Tentative plans for that day call for a parade, a deer feed, and a whistler contest—all on the centennial or pioneer theme. The Chambers post urges the cooperation and membership of all veterans in the area to carry out a successful year.

Post officers are: Stanley Lambert, commander; Lyle David, vice-commander; Cleo Alderson, adjutant; Keith Sexton, finance officer; Merlin Grossnicklaus, sergeant-at-arms; Tom Lambert, chaplain; Cleo Alderson, service officer.
