

Heirlooms Exhibited at Sunset Banquet

EWING—The 35th annual sunset banquet was held Thursday evening, September 16, at the parlors of the Ewing Methodist church. This event, sponsored by the Woman's Society of Christian Service, honors all persons in the community who have reached their 70th birthday anniversary. This year the theme was "Among My Souvenirs."

Keepsakes of years gone by were brought from attics, trunks and other places of storage by members when they gathered at 6 o'clock at the church. Among the articles 100-years-old and over were:

A box of waxed fruit in good color and form, a lady's coat and bonnet and other articles from the Van Zandt home.

A. Alden brought his father's wedding vest with elaborate hand work. A whetstone, still in use, 125-years-old, was brought in by John Miller; Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Olson displayed a chest made by his grandfather in 1850 and brought to America by his father in 1870.

A child's chair now being used by Bonnie Beth Dunaway, the granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Billings of Ewing, was displayed.

A Bible 95-years-old was brought in by James Wilson. Mrs. Minnie Primus had the Bible given her 63 years ago when she was confirmed. School books and newspapers in this group also brought back memories.

Other articles of interest were: Old coffee grinder; sausage stuff-er; butter mold and paddle; an iron mush kettle with a wire beater; baby's long dresses; a wedding dress, 95-years-old, and many other items.

In the picture collection was one which was one of the house, 100-years-old in Denmark, in which Albert Larson was born. Two family albums and some typewriters were fascinating.

As guests registered upon their arrival, each was asked to guess the identity of four pictures taken years ago of members who were present. No one guessed correctly. The following members' names were revealed: The 3-months-old baby in the long dress was Miss Anna Van Zandt; the 12-year-old boy was James Gunter; the young lady was Mrs. Andrew Olson; the sporty young man with the long beard was Andrew Olson.

The following program was presented with Claude Elliott, member of the Methodist Men, as the master of ceremonies:

Welcome and "Blessing" by Rev. Lee Brigid; "America" by all; solo, "Among My Souvenirs" by Joelyn Eacker; musical reading, "How I Learned to Play the Piano" by Diane Baum; "The Old Church in the Valley" by Rev. and Mrs. W. J. Bomer; reading, "The Inventor's Wife" by Mrs. Andrew Olson (this was about 11-years-old).

Musical selections by Andrew Olson on his autoharp; request numbers by A. A. Alden and E. C. Hoag, assisted by Miss Eacker.

George Mitchell won the bouquet of flowers presented each year to the eldest present. He was 83 on May 9. Mrs. Melissa Anderson was a close second. She was 83 August 31. Benediction was given by Reverend Bomer.

Dinner was served at 6:30 o'clock. The room and tables were decorated in pastel orchid and white.

Bouquets of garden flowers flanked with candles in crystal holders made up the centerpieces.

Present were: Mrs. Ada Secrist, John C. Miller, Mr. and Mrs. Deemer Connor, Mrs. Alphonso Beelaert, Mrs. Hannah Tuttle, Mrs. Minnie Primus, Mrs. Elizabeth Angus, Mrs. Amy Jacobsen, Mr. and Mrs. Will Conner, E. C. Hoag, Mrs. Mabel Boies, A. A. Alden, Miss Anna M. Van Zandt, Merton H. Diertks.
