

Orchard Orioles Punish Cardinals

First Half Is Okay; Final 27-0

The crowd was there and the evening was perfect.
But the Orchard high Orioles were too swift for the inexperienced hilltoppers—the St. Mary's academy Cardinals. Orchard won 27-0 after building an 8-0 first half lead.

The game was played in Carney park. The SMA pep crowd, revved up after a rally, was in the stands at full-strength and the band performed.
Coach Don Templemeyer said he could not single out an individual standout from his pack of Cards, because they played a good game during the first-half and then proceeded to fall apart.
What hurt was losing the ball on a fumble after working down to the visitors' 1-yard-line.
Orchard outyarded the Cards, 236-130.
Jim Hemmenway, Orchard fullback, ran wild for the Orioles and was impossible for the Cards to stop. Actually, play was quite

FOR DEPENDABLE, LOW-COST HAULING

Rugged, reliable John Deere Wagon Gears give you dependable, low-cost hauling with three big advantages:

1. Strength. All three models, rated from 2 1/2 to 5 tons, are of welded all-steel triangle-braced construction, built low for stability.
2. Flexibility. The telescoping steel reach has outstanding flexibility to absorb the twisting strains of ditch and furrow, rocks and ruts. Fully adjustable for almost any size box or bed.
3. Straight trailing. John Deere Wagons have close-coupled auto-steering . . . precision-machined spindles . . . protected tie-rods. They "trail like a shadow" at top rated speed and load. See us for complete information.

Anderson-Wells Nuptial Vows Are Read Here

Miss Pauline Anderson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Merrill Anderson of Redbird, and Bob Wells, son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Wells of Butte, were united in marriage on Sunday afternoon, September 19, at the Assembly of God church in O'Neill. Rev. Wayne A. Hall officiated at the double-ring ceremony.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a waltz-length gown having a bodice of Chantilly lace over taffeta and a skirt of net with bands of Chantilly lace around it. She wore a fingertip veil and carried a bouquet of yellow roses with a white Bible. The bride was wearing a three-strand pearl necklace, a gift of the bridegroom.

Mrs. Robert Allendorfer, sister of the bridegroom, was maid-of-honor. Her dress was blue with a lace bodice and a lace bolero. Her four-tier skirt was net over taffeta. She carried a bouquet of pink and lavender asters.

The bridegroom wore a grey business suit with yellow rosebud boutonniere. Keith Anderson, brother of the bride, served as bestman. He wore a blue business suit with white carnation boutonniere.

The mother of the bride wore a navy blue dress with a white carnation corsage; the mother of the bridegroom wore a pink dress with a white carnation corsage.
Sue Anderson of Columbus, a niece of the bride, was flower-girl. Mikey Allendorfer of O'Neill, nephew of the bridegroom, was ringbearer.

Fred Wells, brother of the bridegroom, and Percy Anderson, brother of the bride, were ushers. Arlene Walter and Glenna Walth sang "Together Life's Pathway We Tread" and "With You." The latter song was written by the bride's mother with music arrangement by the organist, Mrs. Fred Spindler. Gene Libby sang "I Love You Truly."

A reception in the church parlors was held following the ceremony. The table was centered by a four-tier wedding cake baked and decorated by Mrs. Walter Wells. The reception was served by Verneta and Marilyn Smith. Mrs. Rebecca Wells was in charge of the guest book and Mrs. Fred Wells had charge of the gift book.

Mrs. Wells was graduated from Lynch high school and taught two years. Mr. Wells is a graduate of Butte high school.

Upon their return from a honeymoon in the Black Hills, the newlyweds will be at home on the Alvin Scheve farm near Battle Creek where Mr. Wells is now employed.
