Vows in Sunday
Candlelight Rite

ATKINSON — Miss Patricia Joy Roberts, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Roberts of Atkinson, and Floyd Butterfield, jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Butterfield, sr., of Atkinson, were united in marriage at a 7 o'clock candlelight ceremony Thursday evening, September 23, at the Presbyterian church in Atkinson. Rev. F. F. Payas, pastor, officiated.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a waltz-length gown of chantilly lace over satin featuring fitted wrist length sleeves and a scalloped neckline. Her illusion veil fell from a floral and seed pearl bandeau. She carried a bouquet of carnations and roses.

The maid-of-honor, Miss Kay Butterfield, and the bridesmaid, Miss Delores Addison, both of Atkinson, wore similarly styled ballerina-length gowns of pink and blue nylon net and lace over taffeta. They carried nosegay bouquets of white daisies tied with ribbon streamers to match their dresses.

Donald Butterfield was bestman for his brother and David Roberts, brother of the bride, was groomsmen. The ushers were Gary Roberts and Paul Payas.

Following a reception in the church parlors, the couple left on a wedding trip to the Black Hills. For traveling, the bride wore a powder blue knit dress. The couple will be at home in O'Neill where Mr. Butterfield is employed by the Council Oak store.

Mrs. Butterfield was graduated from Atkinson high school in 1953 and the bridegroom was graduated in 1951 from the same school.

Mrs. Floyd Butterfield, jr., nee Patricia Joy Roberts . . . September bride.—O'Neill.

Joan McCormick
Weds J. F. Harty

The marriage of Miss Joan Elizabeth McCormick, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Donald J. McCormick of Chester, Pa., and J. F. ("Jack") Harty of Evanston, Ill., son of Mrs. W. H. Harty of O'Neill, was solemnized Saturday, September 18. The nuptials were read at 11 a.m., in St. Robert's church, Rev. Joseph V. Mulhearn officiating.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a waltz-length gown of ivory-toned satin, fashioned with a round neckline embroidered with see pearls, tiny sleeves and a very full skirt. A band of satin and seed pearls held her waist-length veil of illusion and she carried white orchids and stephanotis.

Mrs. Alarik Rosenlund of Drexelbrook, the matron-of-honor, wore a gown of purple crystal-ette made with a low off-the-shoulder effect neckline and a very full skirt. She carried a bouquet of pink roses. The bridesmaids: Miss Mary Catherine Shepack of Escanaba, Mich., and Miss Helen Harty of O'Neill, sister of the bridegroom, wore identical gowns of purple crystal-ette and carried bouquets of pink gardenias.

John E. Stapler of Kansas City, Mo., served as bestman for Mr. Harty and Alarik Rosenlund of Drexelbrook, Drexel Hill, and Paul Allor of Chicago, Ill., acted as ushers.

Mrs. McCormick, mother of the bride, wore a street-length gown of beige satin, a matching hat and a corsage of blue orchids. Mrs. Harty, mother of the bridegroom, wore a blue ensemble with a matching hat and a corsage of beige colored orchids.

A reception at Rualla followed the ceremony after which Mr. and Mrs. Harty left for a wedding trip and upon their return they will reside in Evanston, Ill.

The bride, a graduate of Northwestern university, class of 1954, is a member of Zeta Tau Alpha sorority.

Mr. Harty was graduated from St. Mary's academy at O'Neill and Rockhurst college, Kansas City, Mo. He is associated with City Products Corp., of Chicago.
