The elected chairmen of all community committees, or their alternates, met on Monday, September 27, in county convention at O'Neill to select the Holt county ASC committee for the next year. Elected to the county committee were: Harry E. Ressel, chairman; Homer Ernst, vice-chairman; Al J. Sauser, member; Albert Carson of Dorsey, first alternate, and Clarence Johnson of Stuart, second alternate.

Price support rates that have been established for Holt county are:
Corn—$1.56 per bushel, grading No. 3 or better.
Wheat—$2.31 per bushel, grading No. 1.
Rye—$1.40 per bushel, grading No. 2 or better.
Oats — 70 cents per bushel, grading No. 3 or better.
Barley—$1.14 per bushel, grading No. 2 or better.
Grain sorghums — $2.28 per cwt., grading No. 2 or better.

All producers are eligible to make application for price support on rye, oats, barley and grain sorghums. To be eligible for price support on wheat and corn, the planted acreages must have been within the acreage allotments established, and the planted acreages measured by field employees of the county ASC office.

Checks have been received by 168 cooperators in the county totaling $31,103.62. This amount is for federal cost sharing on agricultural conservation program practices which have been carried out this year. Under the 1954 ACP program the government shared the cost (approximately 50%) for certain approved conservation practices which were completed according to specifications.
