Angie Lee Spath Bride of Airman

(Photo at left)
CHAMBERS—Miss Angie Lee Spath and S/Sgt. Keith L. McMillen, who is stationed at Offutt air base, Omaha, were married at 2 p.m., Sunday, October 3.

The ceremony was performed in the chapel at Offutt air base by the chaplain, Major Terry.

The bride is the youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Spath of Chambers. Sergeant McMillen is a son of Mrs. Earl Porter of St. Joseph, Mo.

The bride was given in marriage by her father.

For her wedding, the bride chose a white taffeta gown fashioned with a short chantilly lace jacket with bracelet-length sleeves. Her bouffant net skirt was waltz-length. A pearl trimmed calot held her fingertip veil. She carried a bouquet of white roses.

Mrs. Mary Lou Price, sister of the bride, was matron-of-honor. She wore a waltz-length gown of turquoise blue taffeta and net with matching head band. She carried a bouquet of yellow roses.

The bridegroom wore his air force uniform. His bestman, John Simoff of Plover, Ia., an old college friend, wore a brown business suit.

The ushers were Frank Spath of Chambers, brother of the bride, and Kenneth McMillen of St. Joseph, Mo., brother of the bridegroom.

Howard McMillen sang for his brother's wedding "Because of You" and "The Lord's Prayer."

The bride is a beauty operator at Maison Lorenzo in Omaha. Sergeant McMillen served for a time in the army and is now an enlistee in the air force.

A four-tier wedding cake, decorated with white roses and miniature wedding bells, punch and coffee were served to about 125 guests. After the reception in the non-commissioned officers' club, the couple left for a short wedding trip.

Sergeant and Mrs. McMillen will be at home in their apartment at 2218 Poppleton st., Omaha.

3 Guests Present at WSCS Session

EWING—Paper and pencil contests with prizes in charge of Mrs. William Spence and Mrs. Henry Fleming, provided entertainment for the members of the Woman's Society of Christian Service at the annual birthday party held on Friday evening at the parlors of the Ewing Methodist church. Twenty-one present included three guests—Mrs. Bessie Hopkins of California, Mrs. H. C.

Shaffer of Onawa, Ia., and her granddaughter, Bertha Harris of Ewing.

Instead of the exchange of gifts, each member gave 50 cents which will go to purchase some needed article for the church dining room.

The evening's festivities began with a 6:30 o'clock potluck dinner. A large bouquet of white mums flanked by tall white candles in crystal holders, made up the centerpiece. Mrs. J. L. Pruden had charge of the tables.
