Miss Gertrude Ann Sullivan, daughter of Mrs. Patrick Sullivan and the late Mr. Sullivan, and John L. McGill, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. John L. McGill of Omaha, were united in marriage at St. Patrick's Catholic church here Saturday, October 23. Very Rev. Timothy O'Sullivan officiated at the 10 o'clock ceremony.

Given in marriage by her uncle, Henry J. Barrett of Council Bluffs, Ia., the bride wore a satin brocade gown featuring a portrait neckline, bouffant, intricately pleated skirt falling from an Elizabethan waistline and a full train. A sequin-studded half-hat held her illusion veil. She carried a bouquet of white roses and a crystal rosary.

Miss Peggy Sullivan of Omaha, maid-of-honor for her sister, wore a ballerina-length gown of turquoise brocade. A turquoise beaded tiara and a bouquet of bronze chrysanthemums completed her ensemble.

The bridesmaid, Miss Jean Barrett of Council Bluffs, was dressed identically like the maid-of-honor.

Thomas McGill was bestman for his brother. The ushers were Raymond, Albert and Leo McGill.

A reception was held at the Town House from 1 o'clock until 3 Blue candelabra in crystal and a low centerpiece of blue and white painted daisies set off the bridal table. Miss Beverly McCarthy and Miss Gertrude Steffins of Omaha were in charge of the guest book.

For traveling, the bride wore a dark green velvet dress with black accessories. Following a wedding trip to Kansas City, Mo., the couple will be at home at 4323 Erskine street, Omaha.

The bride was graduated from St. Mary's academy. Until her marriage, she was employed by the Northwestern Bell Telephone Co., in Omaha and formerly was with the telephone company here. At Omaha she was employed in the telephone company's sales department.

Mr. McGill was graduated from Sacred Heart high school, Omaha. The bridegroom served in the armed services and attended a two-year course at Creighton university. He is employed as a salesman for Fairmont Frozen Foods Co., in Omaha.

Fifty guests from out-of-town attended the wedding and reception.

Miss Beverly McCarthy and Miss Gertrude Steffins, both of Omaha, arrived in O'Neill Friday to attend the wedding Saturday of Miss Gertrude Sullivan and John McGill. Miss Steffins was a guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George M. McCarthy until Saturday. Miss McCarthy will visit her parents until Monday.

Fritz Clark drove to Grand Island over the weekend and his wife, who had been visiting her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. George Peterson, returned to O'Neill with him.
