

Pakistan Missionary Tells About Floods

EWING — Mrs. Robert McLaughlin of Atkinson was the guest speaker at the thank offering service held Sunday morning at the regular worship hour of the United Presbyterian church. Her daughter, Miss Laura McLaughlin, a missionary in Pakistan, writes of many interesting features of her missionary life. Many of these events were told by Mrs. McLaughlin. Of special interest were the recent floods which took place in Pakistan and her daughter's working during that time.

The thank offering amounted to approximately $133.

The invocation followed by the Lord's prayer was given by Mrs. Dale Napier. Mrs. Carl Christon had charge of the program of the service.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Stutz and family spent Sunday in Petersburg visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Oik.

New Machine Shed Is Setting for Dances

By MRS. N. D. ICKES, SR., The Frontier's Feature Writer.

PAGE — The completion of a large quonset type machine shed on the Lyle Johnson farm suggested a few dances might be in order before cold weather develops.

There has been a series of dances. The first was sponsored by the Johnson brothers, Lysle, Howard and Marvin, Soren Sorensen, jr., and Wilbert Widholm. The second was sponsored by Ewalt Miller, Lysle Johnson, Leonard and Elmer Juracek and William Derickson, in honor of Arnold Miller, who left for the service last Thursday. The third, held Saturday night, October 23, was arranged by Albert Derickson, William Hansen, Robert Sholes, Elroy Lieb and Merie Spangler.

The music has been furnished by the Waring Rhythm Ramblers. No-host lunches have been served.
