Atkinson-O'Neill Grid Date Changed

ATKINSON—The date of the Atkinson high-O'Neill high school football game, originally scheduled to be played on Friday night, November 5, has been changed to Thursday night, November 4. The change was made to avoid conflict with the James Melton program, the first of the O'Neill Community Concert series.

Stolinski - Frost Nuptials at Omaha

ATKINSON—Miss Jo Ann Stolinski became the bride of Francis W. Frost Saturday, October 16, at Our Lady of Lourdes church in Omaha. Rev. Phillip Derrig performed the double-ring ceremony. The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of white satin styled in a full, high collar, bateau neckline and bishop sleeves. The skirt of satin over chantilly lace ended in a cathedral train.

An illusion mantilla trimmed with lace was worn by the bride, who carried a white Amazon lily on a mother-of-pearl prayer book. Mrs. Theodore Pillman, jr., was her sister's matron-of-honor. Mary Jo Connot and Nancy Ann Jelinek were bridesmaids. The attendants wore two-toned lavender gowns, styled with strapless bodices, cape sleeves and full floor-length skirts trimmed with sashes. Head bands with veils and bouquets of lavender chrysanthemums completed their ensembles.

Herbert Gude was bestman. Ushers were John Stolinski of St. Louis, Mo., brother of the bride, Ervin Marsky of Kansas City, Mo., John Borer and William Comcovich.

Mrs. Frost is the daughter of Joseph C. Stolinski of Omaha. She received a bachelor of arts degree from Marquette university, Milwaukee, Wis., and a master of arts degree from Creighton university, Omaha. She has taught in Omaha schools.

Mr. Frost is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Phillip J. Frost of Atkinson. He was graduated from St. Mary's academy, O'Neill, and Creighton university. He is now employed in Chicago, Ill.

A breakfast was held at the Blackstone hotel, and an afternoon reception was held at the Omaha Field club.

For her Southern wedding trip, the bride chose a blue suit with black accessories.

The couple will live at 100 W. Burlington ave., LaGrange, Ill.

M.D., Dentist Will Appear on Panel

The O'Neill Parent-Teachers' association will meet on Monday, November 1, at 8 p.m., in the public school music room. The program theme for November is "Opportunities for Better Health."

The meeting will be opened by Rev. John Thomas, who will lead in invocation and the flag salute. The entertainment will consist of songs by the sixth graders and instrumental selections by a flute sextette—Marilyn Lindberg, Mardy Johnson, Betty Schultz, Karen Bridge, Judy Smith and Janice Sipes.

Members of the junior speech class—Carolyn Lindberg, Mary Petrow, Kay Hibbs, Roger Nie-neyer and Ed Krugman—will present a symposium on health. Their topics will be food and diet, vitamins, cleanliness, alcohol, tobacco and exercise.

The program theme, "Health," will be presented in a panel discussion by Dr. Robert Langdon and Dr. Edward Gleeson. Lunch will be served by the sixth grade mothers.

Mrs. James Rourke and Mrs. Felix Roberts will leave from Omaha by plane Sunday for New York City where they will vacation for several weeks. Mrs. Rourke during her stay there will attend the Robert Fiance school.

CATTLE Market Report

Monday - Tuesday Auctions Atkinson, Nebr. October 25 & 26

A steady rain fell last Monday and had a dampening effect on the calf auction. 2,720 calves sold at 21.50 to 23.00; medium to good at 18.00 to 20.00; choice heifer calves at 16.50 to 17.50; bulk at 16.00 to 16.50. The weather definitely was a depressing factor.

Tuesday's Auction was a reversal from the day before. Lots of buyers and a good market. All classes of steers 50c to 1.00 higher. Top on steers 21.05; bulk 18.50 to 20.50; heifers steady with a week ago. Cows lower.

Special Notice Due to Election Day November 2nd

We will combine our Monday and Tuesday Auctions and SELL ALL CLASSES ON MONDAY, NOV. 1st ONLY. Our regular 2-day a week auctions will be resumed every Monday and Tuesday starting November 8th and 9th.

We can use more cattle for these dates and would suggest your listing them early to assure a good spot in the auction.
