Four Hiway Scales Weigh 116,652 Trucks in 5 Months

Since the scale section of the department of roads and irrigation was put in operation five months ago, 116,652 trucks have been weighed at the four scales in the northeastern district, Curtis Muller of Norfolk, district foreman, announced Friday.

One of the most active scales is at the Stafford corner, between Ewing and Iuman at the junction of U.S. highways 20-275. Of the trucks, 7,828 or 6.7 percent of the number weighed, were found to be in the tolerance allowed for excess weight or to be in violation of truck laws.

Of the 1,257 arrests made, 76 cases were dismissed. Fines totaled $49,435.25. These fines were paid in 1,190 cases, the average fine being approximately $41.55. Fines were paid on 1.02 percent of the trucks scaled, the fines averaging 424 cents per truck weighed, Muller said.

The percentage of arrests to trucks weighed has been decreasing while the amount of fines assessed has remained steady. "This indicates that the arrests being made at present are for more serious violations, involving over-weights on highways such as over-weight on axle or over-gross weight for the length of the vehicle," the district foreman said.

Arrests for overweight on capacity plates have fallen off, indicating that most of the Nebraska trucks are licensed for the weight being carried, Muller said. A total of 375 tons of additional capacity plates has been sold for a total of $4,666.75. Of this total, 335 tons were sold in the first three months of operation.

The scales are located at Laurel, Columbus, Stafford and Nickerson.

50 Years Ago
 Election returns for Holt county show that the propositions to divide the county into three were buried by a majority of nearly one thousand. On the head of the election ticket, Holt county, which has been going democratic for years, rolled up a majority of over 300 for Roosevelt and Fairbanks.

20 Years Ago
 Lloyd G. Gillespie, republican, carried the county with a majority in the state legislative race. . . . The Osmond band will play at the armistice day festivities here. . . . Democrats retained their hold on the Nebraska voters for state and national offices. Karl Stefan, as congressman, and Swanson, as land commissioner, were the only republican winners.

10 Years Ago

Holt county went strongly republican at the general election. Dewey carried the Holt national ticket. D. H. Cronin was elected to the state legislature from this district—defeating John Copeland of Mariaville. There are mail votes to count, but it is suspected he will increase his 249 vote lead. . . . Asa B. Hubbard of Chambers, republican, won over Simon W. Schaff, democratic candidate for sheriff, by a vote of 3,718-2,293. . . . Stores will be closed only one-half day armistice day. . . . A. V. Virgin had the misfortune to have his car catch fire while driving west on main street near the Leidy hatchery. He had his radiator filled with alcohol antifreeze. This caught fire and was so hot that it did considerable damage to the car before the firemen arrived.

One Year Ago
 Seven public schools in north central and northwest Nebraska were burglarized during the early morning hours on one night last week. . . . Mrs. P. B. Harty has been named president of the Grattan township library board. . . . The first honest snowfall of the year grabbed the spotlight last week. Atkinson reported one inch, Boyd county towns two inches. . . . Paul Baker has been elevated to principal of O'Neill high. He succeeds Joel Lyman, who has resigned to accept a position as superintendent in Shoshone, Wyo. . . . A Kansas gypsy family may end the question as to the identity of the body of a young boy found at O'Donnell's lake in August. They are missing an 11-year-old boy whose description closely resembles the boy found.
