

E' Club Sponsors Carnival at Ewing

EWING — The Ewing high school was the scene of a carnival Wednesday, November 17, sponsored by Coach Richard Lane and the "E" club for the purpose of raising funds for athletic equipment. The program included entertainment for all ages. A cake walk was a special feature. A good crowd was in attendance.

The activities of the evening began with a chili feed at the Legion club. This was sponsored by the Pep club which also had as its purpose raising funds for transportation to the basketball games of the coming season. Both activities were considered "very successful."

Jim Good Plays Football in Army

EWING — Army Cpl. Jim G. Good, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Good of Ewing, is a member of the 97th field artillery battalion's touch football team in Germany.

The team recently took a runner-up spot in the 18th field artillery group's tournament.

Corporal Good, a communications specialist in headquarters battery, arrived overseas last November after completing basic training at Camp Chaffee, Ark. He entered the army in May, 1953.

Bernadine Sanders, Vernon Rockey Wed

EWING — The altar of St. Peter's Catholic church was decorated with white and yellow mums with ferns for the Thursday, November 18, wedding of Miss Bernadine Sanders and Pfc. Vernon C. Rockey. Rev. A. F. Hoising officiated at the double-ring 9 a.m. ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Sanders of Ewing. The bridegroom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. R. G. Rockey, also of Ewing. He is stationed with the army in the state of Washington.

Vocal selections were "Ave Maria," "Jesus Thou Art Coming" and "Rose of the Cross," sung by Mrs. Kermit Jefferies, Lee Spittler and A. E. Spittler, who also presided at the organ.

William L. McManus of Olathe, Colo., was the bestman. Ushers were Gene Tomjack of Ewing and A. J. Sanders of Dixon.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a full-length gown of white broadcloth nylon over net which featured a strapless bodice and a tiered skirt. Her fingertip illusion veil was held by a half-hat and she carried a colonial bouquet of white mums with a removable corsage of yellow.

Miss Rosalie Spittler was the maid-of-honor. She wore a ballerina-length gown of mint green nylon net over taffeta, a matching half-hat and she carried a colonial bouquet of yellow mums.

After the ceremony, a wedding breakfast was served to 70 friends and relatives at the Stockmen's cafe.

The four-tier wedding cake, decorated in the bride's colors, was topped by a miniature bride and bridegroom. The cake, flanked by tall white candles, made up the centerpiece for the bride's table. Waitresses were Marilyn Weyrich, Marcia Gibson, Jeanne Welke, Maxine and Frances Nofke, Lila Woepffel and Elynae Neal of Clearwater.

The cake was decorated by Mrs. Ray Seaman and was cut and served by Mrs. Lee Spittler and Mrs. Sylvester Balm. Others who assisted with the breakfast were Mrs. Josephine Elston, Mrs. Agnes Bartak, Mrs. Eva Kaczor and Mrs. Robley Sisson, sr.

The young couple left on a wedding trip to Tacoma, Wash., where they will make their home.

The bride chose for traveling a turquoise two-piece wool knit dress with black accessories.

Mrs. Rockey was graduated from Ewing high school in the class of 1954, and has been employed at the office of the Clear Water Record during the summer months.

Private Rockey was graduated from the Ewing high school with the class of 1952. Before entering the service over a year ago, he attended the Wesleyan university and Wayne State Teachers college.

Out-of-town guests attending the wedding were: Mr. and Mrs. D. Russel, Mr. and Mrs. Vance Butler, Mr. and Mrs. Vance Anson, all of Neligh; Mr. and Mrs. David Lyons and sons of Branard; Mr. and Mrs. William Lyons, Gene Patras, Ray Angus, Mr. and Mrs. M. H. Snider, Miss Elyne Neal, all of Clearwater; Betty Borensman of Norfolk; Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Sanders and family of Dixon; Mr. and Mrs. Frank Cronk of Page; Mrs. Victor Marquardt of Creighton; William L. McManus of Olathe, Colo.
