GM Celebrates Greatest Production Record

Symbolic of General Motors' 50,000,000th car produced in the United States since 1908 is this 1955 Chevrolet Bel Air sport coupe. T. H. Keating, general manager of the Chevrolet Motor Division (left) is shown handing the key to the car to Harlow H. Curtice, president of General Motors. Behind Mr. Curtice is the design of GM's official 50,000,000th car medallion, emblematic of the greatest production record in transportation history. Painted and plated with gold, the car came off the Chevrolet assembly line at Flint, Michigan, on November 23. At that time GM celebrated with an "open house to America" in all of its 125 plants and training centers across the country.

Lorna Stevens Is Bride in Sunday Church Ceremony

PAGE—In the presence of members of the families and a small group of friends and relatives, the marriage of Miss Lorna Stevens, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. B. Stevens of Page, and Dennis La Fave, son of Mr. and Mrs. Eugene La Fave of Pierre, S.D., was solemnized in a double-ring ceremony Sunday afternoon, November 23, at the Page Methodist church. Rev. Lisle E. Methman, church pastor, officiated.

Preceding the ceremony, a prelude of piano music was presented by Miss Ruth Parks, who also played the wedding march and accompanied Mrs. Paul Robinson as she sang "Oh Promise Me."

The bride, given in marriage by her father, chose an afternoon dress of cream brocade, fitted bodice and full stand-up skirt. She wore a gold corsage, a gift from the bridegroom, a small black velvet hat with tiny veil and carried a bouquet of crimson carnations.

The bridesmaid, Miss Wanda Stevens, the bride's sister and only attendant, wore a medium blue silk dress, made similar to the bride's, and a small black velvet hat with veil. Her bouquet was of pink carnations.

Serving as best man was Virgil Hofer of Onida, S.D., a friend of the bridegroom. Seating the guests was Wayne La Fave, the bridegroom's brother.

The mother of the bride chose for her daughter's wedding a dress of black crepe with pink accessories, and the bridegroom's mother wore a dress of blue crepe with brown accessories. Both wore pink corsages.

A reception for the guests was held in the church parlors with Mrs. Gerald Lamason, Mrs. A. G. Braddock and Mrs. C. E. Walker in charge.

Miss Audrey Braddock had charge of the guest and gift book, assisted by Miss Sherry Stewart and Mrs. Jerry Asher.

Miss Jo Ann Braddock cut the served wedding cake and Mrs. Lois Wood, sister of the bridegroom, poured the punch.

The bride was graduated from Page high school and Grand Island business college. She has been employed the past eight months as secretary for Spears & Spears, realtors, at Onida.

The bridegroom was graduated from Onida high school and is employed with the Sully county ASG at Onida.

After a short wedding trip, the couple will make their home in Onida.

Out-of-town guests for the wedding and reception were from Onida and Pierre, S.D., Omaha, Lincoln, Atkinson, Orchard and O'Neill.
