Mrs. Gerald Lampert . . . November bride.—O'Neill Photo Co.

Joan Bauer Bride of Gerald Lampert

EWING—Bouquets of white mums and red carnations decorated the altar of St. Peter's Catholic church for the Saturday, November 27, wedding of Miss Joan Bauer and Gerald Lampert. Rev. Alfred Hoising officiated at the 10 a.m., double-ring ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Bauer of Ewing. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Pat Lampert of Orchard.

Soloists were Mr. and Mrs. Jack Lyness of Hamill, S.D., who sang "Ave Maria" with "Panis Angelicus," with Mrs. Kermit Jefferies as the organist accompanist.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of dupioni silk with French lace and nylon tulle accents. The bodice, buttoned at the back and cut to a shallow dip at the waist, featured a portrait neckline of embroidered lace, long fitted sleeves pointed at the wrist. The very bouffant skirt of double pleats, fell in unpressed fullness over stiffened petticoats to the hemline of shallow scallops over a ruffled nylon tulle underskirt that continued into a cottillion sweep. An open-designed queen's crown of seed pearls held the double-tier veil of imported illusion. Her bouquet was of white chrysanthemums and white baby mums.

Miss Patty Bauer was her sisters' maid-of-honor. She wore a ballerina-length gown of red net, trimmed with silver. The two bridesmaids, Nance Bauer, sister of the bride, and Mrs. James Bartak wore gowns identical to that of the maid-of-honor. All carried bouquets of white baby mums arranged with red net and silver.

Bestman for his brother was Harry Lampert of Orchard. Ushers were James Bartak of Inman and Bob Bartak of Ewing. All wore red carnation boutonnières as did the bridegroom.

Following the ceremony, dinner was served at St. John's church. The wedding cake, baked and decorated by Mrs. Ray Seaman, centered the bride's table. It was flanked by candles and bouquets in red and silver. The cake was cut and served by Mrs. Walter Sievers. Waitresses were Bernadine Rotherham, Rita and Connie Lydon, Dora Lou Rosno, Linda Tuttle and Rosalie Spitzer. The ladies who assisted with the dinner preparation were Mrs. Veal Tuttle, Mrs. Victor Bollwitt, Mrs. Al Thrasher and Mrs. Leo Lydon.

One hundred guests attended the afternoon reception, also held at St. John's church. The church was decorated with the bride's chosen colors of red and silver. Mrs. Dewayne Borg had charge of the gift book and assisting with the gifts were Jackie Mosel and Lorna Koenig.

For the wedding trip to the Ozarks, the bride chose a navy blue suit with navy and white accessories. On their return the young couple will make their home at Stanton, where Mr. Lampert is employed at the Gaddie Hardware store.

The bride was graduated from St. Mary's academy at O'Neill with the class of 1931. For the past three years she has taught in the rural schools of Nebraska.

The bridegroom was graduated from Ewing high school with the class of 1948 and has also attended the Norfolk Junior college.

Out-of-town guests attending the wedding were: Mr. and Mrs. Ray Neisius of Pilger; Jack Francis of Newman Grove; Mr. and Mrs. Charles Praeuner, Mr. and Mrs. Herman Bierman, all of Battle Creek; Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Miller, Mr. and Mrs. Ira Moss, all of O'Neill, and Mr. and Mrs. Jack Lyness of Hamill, S.D.

A Honey Of An Idea For Tea Time

As Fall makes its return, the spirit of entertaining and visiting increases for the home gals. Little wonder, then, that afternoon teas are high on the list of ways to bring friends together. The reason is simple . . . what to eat at such affairs presents little or no problem at all. A cup of tea (or coffee), sandwiches, and some form of sweet—like this Honey Nut Kuchen, and the gals are "raring" to go. The recipe for this festive sweet bread is not only easy to make but a delight to serve. Try it right away.

Honey Nut Kuchen

- ¾ cup sifted flour
- 2½ teaspoons double-acting baking powder
- ¼ teaspoon salt
- 3 tablespoons shortening
- ½ cup milk
- ¼ cup honey
- 1 egg, well beaten
- 1½ cups Grape-Nuts Flakes
- ¼ cup brown sugar
- ½ teaspoon cinnamon
- ¼ to ½ teaspoon nutmeg
- 2 tablespoons butter, melted
- ½ cup Grape-Nuts Flakes

Sift flour once, measure, add baking powder and salt, and sift again. Cut in shortening until mixture looks like coarse meal. Combine milk, honey, and egg and add all at once to the flour mixture. Stir only enough to dampen flour. Fold in 1½ cups cereal. Spread in greased 8x8x2-inch pan.

Mix together brown sugar, spices, butter, and the ½ cup cereal. Sprinkle over top of batter and bake in hot oven (400°F.) 20 to 25 minutes, or until done.
