S-D Day Is 'Success' in County

Collision in Page Occurs Two Hours Before Test Starts

Holt county claimed an accident-free "safe driving" day on Wednesday. "S-D" day was observed here in connection with President Eisenhower's appeal to the nation's motorists and pedestrians to help their communities accident free on that date.

Holt County Sheriff Leo Tomjack, traffic safety chairman for the Holt county safety council, said late Wednesday night this county claims a "perfect record."

Meanwhile, the Holt county safety council held a meeting here Tuesday afternoon with 11 present. Henceforth, regular quarterly meetings will be held the third Monday of the first month of each quarter.

Special speakers are being sought for the January session and the exact date will be announced later, according to Mrs. N. D. Ickes of Page, who is council publicity chairman.

The January session will be open to the public and special emphasis will be placed on traffic safety.

Mrs. Ickes said the members of the council urge anyone interested to attend. Likewise, she said, all residents are urged to become safety conscious and to recognize and remove hazards on the farm, in the homes and in traffic.

A two-car collision on the main street of Page, following a basketball game, occurred just two hours before the safe driving day observance began.

He Can Look but Can't Eat It

Allan Chmiel, 3, curiously examines a wintry home scene in miniature at St. Anthony's hospital. The dwelling, picket fence and most of the decorations (except the flag) are edible, produced from pastry dough in the kitchen by Sister M. Fara, who is the kitchen supervisor. Ironically, Allan's diet precludes rich pastries. Allan, who observed his third birthday anniversary last month, is a diabetes sufferer. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Carl R. Chmiel, who reside 14 miles southwest of Ewing. Only two weeks ago he was discovered to be a diabetic. Allan is hopeful he will be able to spend Christmas at home with his parents and his sister, Carol Jean. Sister Fara is pictured with Allan.

EMMETT—Parishoners of the Church of the Epiphany will honor their parish priest, Rev. Francis T. Price, at a party Sunday evening in the church basement. The occasion is the 10th anniversary of his ordination into the priesthood of the Roman Catholic church.

Father Price was graduated from St. Mary's academy in O'Neill in 1936. He attended St. Lawrence college, Calvary, Wis., from 1936 until 1939 at which time he entered Kenrick seminary at St. Louis, Mo. He was ordained there on December 21, 1944.

Before becoming pastor of the Church of the Epiphany in February of this year, he served as assistant pastor at St. Bridget's Catholic church, Omaha, from January, 1945, until 1949. From 1949 until coming to Emmet he was the assistant pastor at St. Michael's Catholic church in South Sioux City.

Santa Claus Invades Garden Club Party

CHAMBERS—Beautiful Valley Garden club finished the year with a regular meeting and Christmas party held at the home of Mrs. Day Hoffman Tuesday evening, December 7.

Sixteen members, one visitor and three children were present. Roll call was answered by each member telling what improvement she had made or attempted to make in her yard or garden this year.

The club had been divided into four groups, each group having several numbers on the program which consisted of Christmas songs, readings and poems. Several amusing games were then played. After the program it was found that Santa Claus had slipped in and hung a huge red stocking on the kitchen door. Upon investigating it was discovered he had gotten hold of the sisters' exchange gifts and when emptied, there was a gift for each.

Next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Hattie Tibbets January 4. The program will consist of colored slides showing interesting places visited by Mr. and Mrs. Walter Summers on their foreign trip last year, to be shown by Mrs. Summers.

40 Deer Checked-In; 190-Pounder Biggest

Hunters harvested 40 deer in this area during the five-day season, which ended Wednesday.

The O'Neill checking station, operated by the Nebraska game and conservation commission, closed down at 6 p.m.

Holt county was in area 4. Other counties in the area were Poyd, Cedar, Dakota, Knox and Dixon. There were 500 permit holders in the area. It was expected about 50 percent of the eligible hunters got their animals.

State Game Warden Fred Salak of O'Neill, who Sunday bagged a 104-pound mule deer for himself, said the hunting in the county was without unusual incident.

However, he pointed out he was investigating one instance in which a hunter without a permit had a deer in his possession.

First deer checked in were killed by John W. Newman and Rollo Berry, both of Stuart. Both were mule deer. Newman's weighed 103 pounds; Berry's, 181.

The Berry deer measured a 24 1/2-inch spread. Biggest deer turned in was claimed by Elvin Hamilton of Ewing, a 190-pound whitetail, 157 pounds, mule.

Other reports listed with "hog dressed" weights are: Joseph Bealbert of Page, 175 pounds, whitetail.

John R. Cobb of Waterloo, 175 pounds, mule.

James E. Deming of Stuart, 160 pounds, mule.

Clifford Dick of O'Neill, 139 pounds, mule.

David E. Etherton of Atkinson, estimated 100 pounds, mule.

Bryon Grenier of O'Neill, 112 pounds, mule.

Clifford Hahlbeck of Ewing, 157 pounds, mule.

Albert Henning of Atkinson, 123 pounds, whitetail.

Mary K. Henning of Atkinson, 102 pounds, mule.

Arthur Humpal of Atkinson, 117 pounds, whitetail.

Harold Johnson of Fremont, 166 pounds, whitetail.

Henry K. Kahlandt of Waterloo, 140 pounds, mule.

Raymond Krysl of Stuart, 91 pounds, mule.

Leroy M. Kunz of Stuart, 106 pounds, mule.

Max Kunz of Stuart, 106 pounds, mule.

Leo Laible of Atkinson, 103 pounds, whitetail.

Francis Latzel of Ewing, 116 pounds, whitetail.

Eugene Lange of Spencer, estimated 100 pounds, mule.

Art Laursen of Venus, 113 pounds, mule.

Fred Leuenberger of Tecumseh, 118 pounds, mule.

Robert Melcher of Creighton, 112 pounds, whitetail.

George Mellor of Atkinson, estimated 120 pounds, mule.

Edward Meusch of Stuart, 173 pounds, mule.

John Meusch of Stuart, 96 pounds, mule.

Raymond Meusch of Stuart, 104 pounds, mule.

Leo Miller of Ewing, 170 pounds, whitetail.

Walter Miller of Ewing, 105 pounds, mule (estimated weight).

Raymond Phibrick of Ericson, 100 pounds, mule.

Lester Raff of Venus, 142 pounds, mule.

Ivan Roth of Atkinson, 116 pounds, whitetail.

Fred Salak of O'Neill, 104 pounds, mule.

Larry Schaffer of Emmet, 146 pounds, whitetail.

Calvin Seger of Atkinson, 84 pounds, mule.

Raymond Seger of Atkinson, 114 pounds, mule.

Marvin Snyder of Page, 91 pounds, mule.

Leland Sprout of Elgin, 140 pounds, whitetail.

William White of O'Neill, 102 pounds, mule.

Elmer Wiseman of Page, 131 pounds, whitetail.

Franklin Wiseman of Page, 131 pounds, whitetail.

Hunters generally are finding the deer quite elusive although the area north of Stuart produced the best results.

Only 23 deer had been checked in at Center until late Monday and 16 were checked-in at Butte during the first three days—less than a year ago.
