Good Time to Buy Replacement Cattle

- The cattle market last week was slow to a dollar down, following the trend of the terminal markets. Today might be a good time to buy your replacement cattle.
- We're expecting between 700-900 cattle, consisting of 300 head of yearling steers and heifers, quality medium to good; also 300 head of steer and heifer calves; the balance in mixed cattle, including 12 top milk cows and six 2-year-old Holstein heifers coming from near Oakdale.
- Four quarter horses will be sold. Around 200 feeder pigs are expected.
