Page Eagles Down Inman in Thriller

PAGE—The Page high school Eagles edged the Inman high Tigers, 64-62, in a thriller played Friday evening on the Page court. The game was played before a sellout crowd.

Page jumped to a 20-13 first quarter lead, only to have the Tigers knot the count at halftime,

The second half found both teams overlook the advantage of having matching basket-for-basket. At the end of the third, Page enjoyed a one point margin, 48-47.

The fourth quarter saw both teams losing key players via the foul route-Don Kelley of Inman and Hugh Troshynski of Page. However, the dingdong battle continued. In late stages of the game, the Eagles held a five-point edge over the visitors, only to have the Tigers roar back, tying up the game at 62-62 with little more than sixty seconds remaining, Forward Gary Kemper of Page with a cool-as-ice jump shot from the freethrow area, wedged Page into the lead with the winning bas-
