Letter to Editor

Stuart, Nebr.

Editor:

I wish to make a correction in your paper under justice court procedures wherein it stated that I was fined $29 for illegal possession of deer meat. This is incorrect. I was fined for a pheasant that was accidentally caught in my sink trap, for which I had a license. I have never had in my possession any illegal deer meat.

DEWAYNE L. ULRICH

(Editor's note: The Ulrich is glad to make the correction on the misinformation taken from the court record.)

Family Gathering at Anderson Home

A family Christmas dinner was held at the William Anderson home with all the children present except Mr. and Mrs. Howard Peters, who spent the day at the home of his parents at Mead.

Those attending were Mr. and Mrs. Jasper Hitecock, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Williamson and family, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Timm and Ronnie, Mr. and Mrs. Orville McKim and family, Mr. and Mrs. Owen Parkinson and family and Mrs. Eda Shriner, all of O'Neill.

Raising Money for Movie Projector

EMMETT—Miss Helen Martens and pupils of school district 20 held a Christmas program and box social on Thursday evening.

Santa arrived after the program and gave each child a sack of candy and nuts. He helped Miss Martens distribute the gifts.

With his empty sack slung over his shoulder, he disappeared into the night, leaving behind many happy children.

Bud Cole auctioned off the boxes which the school girls had brought. Sandwiches and coffee were sold. The teacher and the pupils are trying to make enough money to buy a movie projector for the school.
