Braddock-Buxton Nuptials at Page

PAGE—Miss Audrey Braddock, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Braddock of Omaha, and Cpl. Richard Buxton, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Buxton of Page, were married Sunday afternoon, December 26, in the Methodist church in Page.

Rev. Lisle Mewmaw officiated at the double-ring ceremony before an altar decorated with lighted candles and baskets of carnations.

Miss Marilyn Boyd of Omaha sang "Because" and Donald Braddock, brother of the bride, sang "Always." They were accompanied at the piano by Miss Ruth Parks, who also played the prelude, wedding march and the recessional.

Miss Charlene Fusselman lighted the tapers. Her dress was of blue dotted Swiss.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a waltz-length gown of white. The skirt of pleated nylon was backed by taffeta. A full lace overskirt reached almost to the bottom of the skirt in front and tapered to peplum length in the back. The fitted bodice was fashioned with a sweetheart neckline and with three-quarter-length sleeves. Her shoulder-length veil fell from a tiara of seed pearls. Her jewelry included pearl ear rings, the something old; and a single-strand pearl necklace, a gift from the bridegroom. She carried a white Bible topped with an orchid and stephanotis with net and ribbon streamers.

Matron-of-honor was Mrs. Dennis La Fave of Oneida, S.D. Her ballerina-length dress was green net over self-colored taffeta, as was her matching tiara. She carried green tinted carnations.

The bridegroom wore a brown suit. He was attended by his brother, Arnot Buxton, who wore a tan suit. Their boutonnières were white carnations.

Ushers were Dale Braddock, brother of the bride, and Richard Cunningham.

The bride's mother chose a charcoal suit. Her accessories were pink and black. The bridegroom's mother wore a charcoal dress with coral and black accessories.

Following the ceremony a reception was held in the church parlors. The wedding party and parents were served at the bride's table. It was covered with a white cloth and decked with an arrangement of carnations flanked by double candelabra with white tapers. The four-tier wedding cake was topped with a miniature bride and bridegroom. Miss Jo Ann Braddock, cousin of the bride, cut and served the cake. Mrs. Jerry Asher poured. Mesdames Alton Braddock, Gerald Lamason, John Lamason, Gene Mudloff and Miss Alice French helped with the serving.

Miss Kay Harrington of Omaha, Miss Wanda Stevens and Miss Sherry Stewart had charge of the gifts. Mrs. Arnot Buxton had charge of the gift book which was signed by one hundred persons.

For going away, the bride wore a pink flecked charcoal suit, a small pink hat and black accessories. Her corsage was an orchid from the wedding bouquet.

The bride attended the Page school until she finished the 10th grade. She then attended a school in Omaha and was graduated there in 1953.

The bridegroom was graduated from the Page school with the class of 1949. He has been in service for almost two years and had recently returned from Korea.

After a two-weeks' wedding trip, Mr. and Mrs. Buxton will return and visit relatives at Omaha and Page until he will leave February 12 for service again. He has reenlisted for three years and will be sent to Japan for one year.

Mrs. Buxton will continue with her work in Omaha.

Miss Mary Lou Head will return Sunday to Omaha where she attends Creighton university.
