Inman, the recent Elkhorn Valley-Sandhill Gateway conference tourney champ, was seeded number 2. The Tigers boast a wellbalanced club.

The Page Eagles and the St. Jo seph hall Bluejays (Atkinson) were the other seeded teams for the nine-squad tournament. The pairings were drawn at a meeting Saturday in Atkinson. Atkinson will play the winner of the Ewing - St. Mary's first round game; Stuart drew St. Joseph; Inman is paired with Cham-Neill high school.

The Holt tournament promises to be one of the best in recent years. Eight of the nine teams have impressive records. Two of the teams, Page and St. Joseph's, have beaten second-seeded Inman. St. Mary's boasts a win over St. Joseph's. Ewing has beaten uary 5: Marvin Anderson, noble Page. O'Neill took a close one over St. Mary's in early season play. Stuart's only Holt county less was to undefeated Atkinson.
