

Lt. Monte Taylor Is Wed to Iowan

PAGE—Miss Mary Jean Moylan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harold T. Moylan, of Bayard, Ia., and Omaha and Lt. Monte M. Taylor, son of Mr. and Mrs. L. B. Taylor, of Page were united in marriage at St. Patrick's Catholic church in Bayard, Ia., Tuesday, December 28, 1954. Rev. Joseph Moylan of Jemex Springs, N.M., an uncle of the bride performed the ceremony. The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of white silk taffeta fashioned with portrait neckline and illusion yoke. Motifs of velvet applique trimmed the bodice. The bouffant skirt ended in a wide court train. Her finger tip veil of illusion was held by a tiara of lace trimmed with seed pearls. She carried a bouquet of white roses centered with a white orchid.

Miss Patricia Friel of Omaha was maid of honor. Bridesmaids were the Misses Rita Bernice of Topeka, Kans., Jane Kennedy of Coon Rapids, Ia., and Ann Murrane of Scranton, Ia. The attendants wore princess styled floor length gowns of red velvet trimmed with white fur and white kid gloves. They carried bouquets of white roses.

Tertiary Taylor of North Platte was the best man for his brother, James and Joseph Moylan, brothers of the bride, and David Fitzgibbon of Armstrong, Ia., usher.

Christine Taylor, the bridegroom's niece, was the flower girl. Dressed in a gown of red velvet, styled after the brides attendants she carried a basket of rose petals. The ring bearer was Thomas Fitzpatrick of Bagley, Ia.

A breakfast for one hundred guests in the church hall was held following the ceremony and a reception at the home of the bride at one o'clock in the afternoon. The couple will be at home at Ft. Benning, Ga., where he is stationed.

The bride attended Duchesne college and Creighton University. Lt. Taylor was graduated from Page high school in 1948 and Creighton University where he was graduated with a B. S. degree from the college of commerce and a degree from the college of law.
