

Betty Curran Is Elected President

The Eagle Creek club met on Sunday, January 23, at Betty and Mary Jo Curran's for a reorganization session. Two new members, Elaine and Micky Miller, were voted into the club.

Officers for the coming year were elected:

Mrs. Genevieve O'Neill, leader; Janet Hull, junior leader; Betty Curran, president; Elaine Miller, vice-president; Rita Vesquist, secretary; Vincent Ernst, treasurer; Mary Jo Curran, news reporter; Mickey Miller, program chairman.

The members selected their projects for the coming year. It was decided to again pay 10 cents dues per member each month.

The next meeting will be at Micky and Elaine Miller's on February 20 for a covered dish luncheon at noon.

Roll call will be "one thing a good club member does." — By Mary Jo Curran, news reporter.

Progressive Club Hears from Shutins

AMELIA—The Amelia Progressive club met Wednesday, January 19, at the home of Inez White. Eleven members and one guest were present.

Mrs. Clyde Widmen, new president, had charge and gave a report from the council meeting. Goals for the club were discussed and adopted.

A card of thanks from the club's shutin was read, also a letter from last year's shutin.

Mrs. Mae Sageser read a card she had received from a former neighbor, Mrs. Oscar Emerick, who once lived on the McGinnis ranch.

The club will serve lunch at the polo benefit basketball game.

The next meeting on broiler meals will be given by Mrs. Alice Widman and Blanche Sageser at the home of Blanche Sageser on February 16. A lunch was served by the hostess.

Turn on your lights. Fight polo tonight. Mothers march 7-8.
