The opening game found the Page grade team nipping Royal by a 26-24 score in the last minute of action. In the fleeting seconds, Ralph Simmons plunked a closein set shot and the time ran out. Simmons finished with 15 tallies and Grau of Royal had 14 points. The Page seconds bested the Royal high squad, 43-20. Page led at halftime, 19-12. Edmisten and Frahm teamed to tally 25 points. McDaniels led Royal with 12

In the final contest, the teachers defeated the oldtime greats, 35-14. The teachers led at halftime, 20-0. With Waring and Lamason coming through in the second half, the oldtimers made a contest of it. Laughs were had by all who witnessed the 16-minute contest. Both teams used "iron men." The winning teacher squad was composed of John Lamason, Harold Freemyer, Marvin Stauffer, Stanley Gross and Ralph Brostrom. The greats included Frank Cronk, Harold Heiss, Alton Braddock, Jerry Lamason and
