Pirates Top Niobrara in Finals

The St. Mary's academy Cardinals dropped their semifinal go to the highly touted Spencer Pirates last Thursday night in the Niobrara Valley tournament. Off to a good start, both teams traded buckets with Spencer going to the lead at the quarter, 12-10, mainy on gratis shots from the foul

The Cardinals moved to the fore, 16-12, then they suddenly went cold and failed to hit for the remainder of the half. The Pirates rallied, to leave the floor at halfmargin. The Cards quickly picked up ground and reduced the Pirates' lead to six points as they hit three quick buckets. But Spencer arose to the occasion and by by Marie Salisbury of Conwith dead eye accuracy at the freethrow line easily pulled away from the Cardinals. The third quarter ended, 47-26. Up to that point the Cardinals had only one chance from the freethrow line. The Pirates dropped in 22 out of 32 gratis attempts.
