Ewing News

Bob Chitwood and Curtis Reynolds, students at the Nebraska Christian college at Norfolk, arrived in Ewing Sunday morning to conduct worship service at the Church of Christ. Due to the badly drifted roads and blizzard conditions, church services were cancelled and they returned to Norfolk.

Word has been received by Mr. and Mrs. Ray Butler from their daughter and son-in-law, Lt. Col. and Mrs. E. D. McDonald and family telling of their arrival in France on Wednesday, February 16. At their destination which they reached by train, they were met by friends of Colonel McDonald. The 14-day trip across was "rough, many high winds and storms." All the family, except Mrs. McDonald, suffered attacks of seasickness. Douglas, the small son, enrolled the following day on their arrival, for school.

Mrs. Grace Briggs entertained the following guests at her home Thursday evening, Mrs. John Wunner, Mrs. Earl Billings and Mrs. John Archer. Card games were played.

Mrs. Perry Saiser spent Wednesday, February 16, at the home of her sister, Mrs. Harry Keeler, and family. She accompanied Mrs. Robert Tams, who teaches school nearby.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Grim and Mr. and Mrs. Perry Saiser were guests at the Waldo Davis home Friday evening. Pitch was played for a pastime.

Miss Diane Baum will go to Norfolk today (Thursday) to enter the district American Legion oratorical contest. Miss Baum, a senior in Ewing high school, won first place in the local contest. Her theme, "The Constitution, Temple of Liberty", Miss Rowena Rotherham won second place with her theme, "The Framing Fathers, the Constitution." Other contestants were Bob Koenig and Jolyne Kaczor. All will attend the district meeting in Norfolk.

Miss Rowena Rotherham had as her guests at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Rotherham, for a 6 o'clock dinner Monday evening, Miss Diana Baum, Bob Koenig and Jolyne Kaczor. All were contestants in the local American Legion Oratorical contest.

The Bridge club was entertained Tuesday afternoon, February 15, at the home of Mrs. R. G. Rockey. Mrs. M. B. Huffman, substituting for her mother, Mrs. Maud Brion, was a guest. Scorewinners were Mrs. L. P. Diecks and Mrs. Huffman. Refreshments were served by the hostess.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Grim entertained the Ewing faculty at a no-host dinner Sunday evening. Those attending were: Supt. and Mrs. L. M. Carter, Mrs. Lena Baker, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Lane, Wayne Wagoner, Miss Fern Pruden, Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Black, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Ruggles, Mrs. Dona Carson and Mr. and Mrs. N. A. Bergstrom. Stormy weather kept the other members at home.

The Ewing fire department met Thursday evening with Fire Chief Cecil Bergstrom in charge. The annual fireman's dinner will be held in April, the date to be set later. For practice, the department chose Durwood Loughrey, Elvin Hamilton, Elmer Bergstrom, Clifford Hahlbeck and Cecil Bergstrom as crew chiefs, each to have a team of six men. In the spring, contests are planned to develop speed and other abilities as fire fighters.

Weichman-Kaup Nuptials at Stuart

STUART — Miss Leola Jane Weichman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Weichman of Stuart, became the bride of Fredrick Kaup, son of Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Kaup, also of Stuart, Monday, February 21.

Rev. Van Gil of Hastings performed the double-ring ceremony at 9 a.m., in St. Boniface Catholic church in Stuart. Servers at mass were Marvin Scholz, cousin of the bride, and Ronald Schaaf, nephew of the bridegroom. Music was by the men's choir with Sister Vera at the organ.

The bride's floor-length gown was of imported French lace and tulle, fashioned with a fitted strapless bodice of ruffled tulle and lace. A small bolero jacket of lace buttoned in front with lace-covered buttons and dipped to a point in the back. The neckline was styled with a Peter Pan collar and the long sleeves of lace formed traditional bridal points at the wrists. The voluminous skirt of double tulle over satin had cascades of ruffles in the back and four ruffles in the front, giving a peplum effect.

Her veil of tulle was held in place by a crown of seed pearls and rhinestones and she carried a colonial bouquet of red roses and a crystal rosary. Her only jewelry was pearl earrings, a gift from the bridegroom.

She carried out the old tradition of something old, something new, something borrowed and something blue.

Miss Marge Weichman, cousin of the bride, was maid-of-honor. Her gown was fashioned of yellow tulle over taffeta with a matching tulle over taffeta with a matching head piece. She wore a necklace and matching earrings, a gift from the bride and bridegroom, and carried a colonial bouquet of pink carnations.

Shirley Schaaf, niece of the bridegroom, was flowergirl and wore a gown of orchid tulle over taffeta, fashioned similar to that of the maid-of-honor. She carried a miniature colonial bouquet of yellow roses.

Thomas Kaup served as his brother's bestman and Denton Weichman, cousin of the bride, was the ring bearer.

The bridegroom, bestman and ring bearer wore matching blue suits with white carnation boutonnieres.

Ushers were Frank Hamik, friend of the bridegroom, and Donald Wewel, cousin of the bride.

The bride's mother chose a lavender dress and the bridegroom's mother chose a teal blue dress for the wedding. Each wore pink and white carnation corsages.

The wedding breakfast was served at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Kaup, uncle and aunt of the bridegroom.

A dinner was served at the home of the bride's parents to 35 guests. The table was centered with a three-tier wedding cake, topped with a miniature bride and groom, flanked with bouquets of yellow tonquils.

At 2:30 a reception was held at the Stuart auditorium for about 100 friends and relatives. Miss Sharon Bigelow, a friend of the bride, was in charge of the guest book.

The bride wore an aqua blue suit with black accessories for going away. The couple will spend 10 days at Casper, Wyo.

Mrs. Kaup was graduated from Stuart high school with the class of 1954 and Mr. Kaup was also graduated from Stuart high school, class of 1949.

Attend Wedding—

DELOIT—Mr. and Mrs. Henry Reimer and Elayne attended the wedding Saturday noon at Bartlett for Lila May Richey and Lynn Briggs. The bridegroom is in service and will be in a camp in Texas for the present. He will be discharged in October and will assist his father on the farm near North Loup.

Cubs Make Corsages—

Cub Scout den III met at school at the home of the den mother. We talked a little, and then we made corsages for our mothers. Then we said the Cub Scout promise and the Cub Scout law.—By Jimmy Sullivan, reporter.
