Letter to Editor

Dear Townspeople: There has been much comment on our action in trying to enjoin the city of O'Neill from going ahead with the street-widening program. We would like to explain our position.

We feel that whether or not you are for having the road go around town or have it remain in town is of little concern. We are advised that the state can, at any time, by-pass the town whether we do anything about it or not.

Further, we feel that the requirements of the state in our particular case are rather unreasonable. They are requiring us to have a 79-foot street. Only recently the papers had an article showing that McCook had a 47-foot street approved on which three main highways run, one of them highway 6.

We feel that the people that come to O'Neill and trade with us will be greatly perturbed if they cannot get a place to park close to the shopping centers. Even the tourist is not going to park a long way off and walk to a shopping center. The state, not our city council, will have the right to regulate parking along the two highways.

We think that the state is being a bit unreasonable with us, a town of approximately 3,000 population, when they do not by-pass or put similar restrictions on such cities as Norfolk, South Sioux City, Grand Island, Kearney, North Platte, Ogallala, Sidney, Kimball, or McCook, to name only a few.

From our own personal standpoint it will put both of us out of the filling station business. If this project is completed it will mean an unknown financial loss to us. That is why we have opposed and will continue to oppose the city council's handling of this matter.

Yours truly,
C. J. GATZ

Miss Alice Focken Bride of Airman in Church Nuptials

CELIA — In a double-ring ceremony at 2:30 p.m., March 6, at First Presbyterian church in Atkinson, Miss Alice Focken, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Focken of Atkinson, and A/lc Albert D. Emmons, son of Mr. and Mrs. Elvis Emmons of French Lick, Ind., were united in marriage.

Rev. Frank Payas, church pastor, officiated.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. She wore a gown of nylon tulle and charmingly lace over silk taffeta. The fitted bodice was buttoned at the back. The lace bodice featured long fitted sleeves pointed at the wrists and a small Peter Pan collar edged in tulle and trimmed in seed pearls and crystal beads.

The lace bodice featured a deep point at the waistline to which was gathered the bouffant tulle skirt.

A band of matching lace, edged in tulle, formed deep points on the tulle skirt and chapel sweep train. Her French illusion finger-tip veil was held in place by a fitted band of seed pearls.

She carried a bouquet of white roses on a white ribbon.

The maid-of-honor was Miss Barbara Guhl of Omaha. She wore a strapless ballerina length gown of yellow net over taffeta, with matching net stole, and picture hat. She carried a bouquet of mixed sweet peas. Miss Carol Soukup of Omaha and Miss Darlene Tassler of Atkinson wore gowns styled the same as the maid-of-honor in mint green and orchid respectively. Both carried mixed bouquets of sweet peas.

The bridegroom was attended by A/lc William Bacon, A/2c Robert French and Clarence Focken, jr., who is a brother of the bride.

Mrs. Richard Knowles of Atkinson, organist, accompanied Mrs. Leland Anderson of Atkinson, soloist, who sang "I Love You Truly" and "The Lord's Prayer".

A wedding reception followed in the church parlors with 170 attending.

Miss Sharon Andrus of Atkinson-staffed the guestbook.

Canadays to Take Over Ewing Cafe

EWING—The Stockmen's cafe, owned and operated for the past 12 years by Mr. and Mrs. Art Sanders, has been leased to Annette, Jim and Frank Canaday of Gordon.

Mr. and Mrs. Sanders operated a cafe at Neils before coming to Ewing in 1940. They continued in this line of work, opening a cafe at the location of the Eggleston variety store.

In March 1944, they purchased the present location from Mrs. Lola Hann. During the spring and summer months that followed, remodeling and modernizing of the building was done. Living quarters were arranged at the rear.

In September they opened the Stockmen's cafe which has been their place of business and home ever since.

The Stockmen's was a popular place for bridal showers, receptions, food sales of various organizations, club dinners and many other social events which required large accommodations.
