Bluing For Bunnies—Too!

Proud as can be Mr. Bunny sits atop this unusual Easter centerpiece which is made almost entirely of paper! Just two paper plates, a paper cup, crepe paper and laundry head-bluing... and for the eggs, an assortment of gummed stars, dots and holiday seals... and it's easy as pie to make up this gay Easter decoration.
 And—yes, you did read correctly among the list of essentials... it said laundry bluing! It's certainly true the home laundry shelf isn't anywhere near as dull as you might expect. Take this head-bluing, for example—it promises new and shining life to your white and pastel nylons... it keeps your stockings from fading, too—but whoever in this Springtime world would expect it to provide a glamorous trimming for Easter! Mixed with water (*1 cup of the blue beads and ¼ cup water) and applied sparingly to the edges of ruffled crepe paper, it provides an exquisite color—very like a bit of bright Easter sky peeping thru the clouds.
Lower Plate: Cut 3" strip thru entire fold of yellow crepe paper. Gather as you paste it around edge of 8" paper plate. Cut strip of Spring green crepe 2½" x 20"... cut 1½" points on one side. Paste the points around center of the yellow ruffle and cover the center with a circle of yellow crepe.
Upper Plate: Cut 1½" strip thru entire fold of yellow crepe... paste around 6" plate, gathering and pasting. Cover center with circle of green crepe.
Middle: Cut 1" strip thru entire fold of yellow crepe... wind around 4" paper cup, stretching and pasting as you go. Trim edge of cup with 2½" strip green crepe, cut into points.
Tiered Plate: Paste cup upside down on larger plate; paste smaller plate on top of cup. Brush edges of all ruffles with Easter Sunday Blue.*
Notes: Stretch green crepe around soufflé cup. Cut 5" circle of yellow crepe; fold in half 8 times and cut out a "V." Open out and cut small circle from center; slip over cup from bottom; paste at rim. Brush petals with Easter Sunday Blue.*

ST. PAUL'S LUTHERAN (Chambers)
 Rev. Howard Claycombe, jr., pastor
 Thursday, March 31: Choir rehearsal, 8 p.m.; communion announcement, 3-5, 7-8 p.m.; voter's meeting, 8 p.m.
 Friday, April 1: Planning council, 8 p.m.
 Saturday, April 2: Confirmation class, 9:15 a.m.
 Palm Sunday, April 3: Sunday-school and adult Bible class, 10 a.m.; nursery class in the parsonage basement, 10 a.m.; divine worship with holy communion, 11 a.m.
 Monday, April 4: Lutheran Laymen's league, 8 p.m.
 Wednesday, April 6: Adult class, 8 p.m.
 Maundy Thursday, April 7: Lenten service with holy communion, 8 p.m.
 Good Friday, April 8: Divine worship, 8 p.m.
 Easter Sunday, April 10: Festival service, 11 a.m.; Sunday-school, nursery class and adult Bible class, 10 a.m.
 Starting Palm Sunday, the nursery class of St. Paul's will be conducted as a regular portion of the Sunday morning worship program. Children from 2- to 4½-years-old will make up this special class. A large basement room of the parsonage has been completely remodeled and furnished for this purpose. The room includes a specially built sandtable, a teaching table, cabinets, wall-boards, window drapes, a miniature altar with dorsal curtain, small folding chairs, a rebuilt organ and the latest visual aid material adapted for the teaching of children of this age group. Mrs. J. W. Walter, Mrs. Duane Grossnicklaus and Mrs. Victor Harley will lead the group. This class will meet at 10 a.m., during the regular Sunday-school hour. Mothers are welcome to stay with their children in the nursery class as long as they wish.
