1953 ICE CAPADES GREATEST OF ALL

Ruby and Bobby Maxson... the most outstanding brother and sister skating team in the history of show business!

1953 ICE CAPADES FEATURES "BRIGADOON"

"Ice Capades of 1953" is so new it's news! That's right, Ice Capades of 1953 is new and daringly different from any other show.

To begin with, Ice Capades of 1953 presents the greatest array of stars ever assembled in one ice show. Pictured above are the sensational Maxsons, the greatest brother and sister act in ice skating. Then there are other favorites reappearing this year: Donna Atwood, Bobby Spacht, The Old Smooties, Helen Davidesa, the Maxwells, among many more. In addition, three great new stars will be with Ice Capades of 1953. World's Champion Jacqueline duBief, Sonja (Klopper) Kaye, American Champion, and Giany Baxter, Olympic Champion. No other show has ever presented such an array of skating talent.

But skating stars is not all that Ice Capades of 1953 brings to Ak-Sar-Ben Coliseum. There are 10 great production numbers including "Temple of Buddha," "Air de Ballet," "Lamps for M'Lady," a delightful special "Land of Lollipops," and "Brigadoon." "Brigadoon," Lerner and Loew's brilliant musical, is on skates for the first time and is a feast in itself. It is a never-to-be-forgotten spectacle. Gorgeous costumes, beautiful lighting, biting music, hilarious comedy, glamorous stars, huge production—all combine to make Ice Capades of 1953 a show you will never forget.

Ice Capades of 1953 will play at Ak-Sar-Ben Coliseum in Omaha, Thursday, April 9th through Wednesday, April 15th. Performances nightly at 8:30 with matinees at 2:15 Saturday and Sunday, April 11th and 12th. Prices are: Rink-side seats and box seats, $3.50, and reserved seats $2.50 and $1.50. All prices include federal tax. Mail orders for tickets should be addressed to the Omaha Coliseum Corp., Box 7, Elmwood Station, Omaha. Check or money order made payable to Omaha Coliseum Corp., and a self-addressed return envelope should be included. The date of performance, number and price of tickets desired should be clearly stated.

Order your tickets early for Ice Capades of 1953!
