Mrs. Whaley Makes Report on Meeting

Over one hundred people attended the Holt county rural school board meeting held in the assembly room at the courthouse Friday afternoon. Many left because there was not even standing room.
George Collins of Atkinson, chairman, had charge of the meeting.
A report was given by Mrs. Lloyd Whaley of O'Neill, who attended the state rural school board meeting held in Norfolk in February.
At the business meeting Mrs. Whaley was reelected treasurer and Mrs. E. A. Bouska of Stuart was elected vice-chairman.
The remainder of the meeting was spent discussing the new educational bills being considered by the legislature. The group went on record as opposed to any change in certification laws or the poppy contest. It was also decided to send a delegation to the hearings of these bills whenever they are held.

Lorraine Farrier Has Best Essay

CHAMBERS—The American Legion auxiliary met on Friday evening at the home of Mrs. Helen Honeywell with 13 members present.
The president, Mrs. Nellie Meekalf, took charge of the meeting. It was decided to again sponsor the poppy contest in the school. Lorraine Farrier received the first prize of $3 for her essay on "A Citizen's Responsibility." It was voted to subscribe for the bulletin, "The Firing Line," for the Americanism chairman.
Refreshments were served by Margaret Cooper, Lela Corcoran and Ruth Walter. The next meeting is at the home of Margaret Cooper.

Safety on Farm Meeting Topic

CHAMBERS—The Valley Center extension club met Friday afternoon at the home of Mrs. George Thomson with 11 members present.
Mrs. Jessie Kiltz presided at the business session because of the absence of both the president and vice-president. Roll call was answered by naming a favorite book. Gifts for our adopted shutin were discussed.
A lesson, "Safety on the Farm," was presented by Mrs. Lloyd Glead.
Refreshments were served by the hostess. The next meeting will be on March 20 at the home of Mrs. Nick Schmit.

Three R's Ride The Rails In Canada

UP IN the northern Ontario bush country, students do go to school, but the Canadian National Railways also brings the school to the pupils. Converted CNR railway cars are the classrooms. Hauled from town to town by CNR freight trains, the school cars bring elementary education to hundreds in sparsely settled-northern Ontario.
One of the cars contains living quarters for Teacher Fred Sloman, his wife and five children and a schoolroom with books, desks, maps and lending library. CNR's highballing classroom is uncoupled for a week at a time near tiny settlements. Here, Sloman keeps school daily for pupils from six to 18, gives them home work to last six weeks — when the car rolls around again. With classes of three to 16 pupils, Sloman gives individual attention
