

Clinkenbeard-Shellhammer Nuptials Read

The altar of First Methodist church was decorated with sprays of gladiolus and lighted tapers at a 2 p.m. wedding ceremony on Saturday, March 21, when Miss Patricia Ellen Clinkenbeard, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Clinkenbeard, became the bride of Ramon Wallace Shellhammer, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. G. Shellhammer, Rev. W. B. Smith, church pastor, officiated at the double-ring ceremony.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, chose a gown of white slipper satin. The skirt featured a pleated nylon net over-skirt, which was partially covered with a chantilly lace apron. The bodice was fashioned with a lace yoke, a small pointed collar and long sleeves that ended with a point at the wrist. She wore a single strand of pearls which were a gift of the bridegroom. Her bouquet was an orchid surrounded by white stephanotis and knotted satin streamers. The veil of illusion net was held in place with a pearl beaded tiara.

The maid-of-honor was Miss Joann Clinkenbeard. She wore an orchid gown. The bridesmaids were Miss Charlotte McVay and Miss Norma Lou Foreman. They wore orchid and turquoise gowns respectively. The strapless ballerina length gowns were made of net over taffeta. Each wore a tiara of white flowers in her hair and carried a colonial bouquet of yellow and white carnations.

The bridegroom wore a dark blue suit and a white carnation boutonniere.

Paul Shellhammer, cousin of the bridegroom, served as bestman. Donald Beckwith and Stanley Young were the ushers and also the second attendants to the bridegroom.

The nuptial music was played by Mrs. Harold Seger, who also accompanied her daughter, Carol, as she sang "Because" and "I Love You Truly."

The bride's mother and the bridegroom's mother wore navy blue dresses and white carnation corsages.

The reception for one hundred guests was held in the church basement immediately following the ceremony. Mrs. H. L. Lindberg was at the tea table. Mrs. C. E. McVay was in charge of the guest book and Miss Mary Ann Schroeder was in charge of the gifts.

Following the reception the couple took a short trip and then returned here to spend the remainder of Mr. Shellhammer's furlough before going to California where he will report on April 2 for an overseas assignment as an air force airman.

Mrs. Shellhammer plans to remain with him until his departure.

Chimney Blaze Requires Firemen—
LYNCH—The Lynch fire department was called to the Howard DeVall farm home five miles west of Lynch on Wednesday, March 18, about 5:45 p.m., where the chimney in the house was afire.

The firemen managed to keep the fire in the chimney. Aside from some cracked plaster caused by the intense heat, no other damage was done.

Visit Lynch—
Mr. and Mrs. Roy Lowery spent last Thursday through Monday in Lynch visiting their two daughters and their families.

MARRIAGE LICENSE
Frankie L. Buckles, 18, of Merriman and Miss Wilma Van Buren, 18, of O'Neill on Saturday, March 21.

Wilma Van Buren Becomes Bride

Cards and baskets of gladiolus were the setting of a wedding in the Methodist church at 2 p.m. on Sunday, March 22, when Miss Wilma Leota Van Buren, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Van Buren, became the bride of Frankie Lee Buckles, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Buckles, sr., of Merriman. Rev. W. B. Smith officiated in the double-ring ceremony.

Mrs. Marye Hartigan played the wedding march and accompanied Mrs. Don Loy as she sang "Oh Promise Me" and "I Love You Truly."

The bride was given in marriage by her father. The bride and the bridegroom wore matched tailor-made navy blue suits. The bride wore white accessories and a corsage of white roses. She carried a white Bible. The bridegroom wore a white carnation boutonniere.

The matron-of-honor was Mrs. Robert Jonas. She wore a light brown suit, white accessories and a red rose corsage.

The bestman was Joseph Cook of Merriman. He wore a medium brown suit and a white carnation boutonniere.

The ushers were Donald and Wilbur Van Buren, brothers of the bride. They wore a brown and blue suit respectively and red carnation boutonnieres. The ushers also lit the candles at the beginning of the ceremony.

The flower girl was Donna Jonas, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Jonas. Her dress was of blue taffeta and she carried a basket of red rose petals which she dropped along the aisle.

Lloyd Van Buren, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Van Buren, jr., was the ring bearer. He wore a royal blue suit.

For the wedding the bride's mother chose a royal blue dress with light blue accessories. The bridegroom's mother chose a brown dress with brown accessories. Each wore a red and white rose corsage.

Mrs. Keith Baker had charge of the gifts and Miss Marlene Peterson had charge of the guest book.

The reception was held in the church basement immediately following the ceremony. The bride's table was decorated with her colors of pink and white. The centerpiece was the three-tier pink and white wedding cake topped with a miniature bride and bridegroom. It was flanked by candles. The wedding cake was baked by the M&M bakery and the extra cakes by Mrs. Justin Butterfield of Inman. Misses Meta Gruhn, Jean Anderson and Janis Sauters served at the reception. Mrs. Woodrow Gaughenbaugh of Inman poured.

Mr. and Mrs. Buckles left after the reception for a three weeks trip to the southern states and Florida. Upon their return, they will make their home at Merriman where Mr. Buckles is employed with his father in the trucking business. Mrs. Buckles was recently employed at the Hogancamp restaurant at Ainsworth.
