Kalb-Phillips Rites in Atkinson Church

Beverly Small Church Bride

AMELIA—At a 2 o'clock double ring ceremony in the Methodist church in Chambers Saturday, March 28, Miss Beverly Small, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Small of Hopkins, Mo., became the bride of LeRoy Fullerton, son of Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Fullerton of Neligh.
Rev. L. R. Hansberry officiated before an altar decorated with white gladioli and pink carnations.
Nuptial music was played by Miss Patty Carson of Chambers, who also accompanied Miss Elaine Harshfield of Atkinson who sang "I Love You Truly," "Because" and "The Lord's Prayer."

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore white frosted organza over pale pink taffeta. The sleeveless bodice, featuring a Peter Pan collar and an empire waist line extended into a full circle skirt. She carried a bouquet of deep pink roses surrounded by yellow carnations, white sweet peas and wisteria. Her fingertip veil was adorned with a tiara of seed pearls.
The bride's attendant, Miss Donna Peterson of Amelia, wore a ballerina length gown of white frosted organza over dusty rose taffeta. The bodice of her dress, featuring a scalloped neckline, extended into a full circle skirt tied with a dusty rose taffeta sash. She wore a tiara of white carnations, trimmed with dusty rose ribbon and carried a bouquet to match.
Flower girls were little Debbie and Darla Waldo, daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Waldo of Amelia. Debbie's dress, ballerina length, was of white frosted organza over blue taffeta with a matching blue sash. She wore a tiara of blue net and yellow carnations and carried a bouquet to match. Darla's dress, also ballerina length, was of white frosted organza over yellow taffeta with a matching yellow sash. Her tiara was of yellow net and she carried a matching bouquet. The little girls wore blue and yellow slippers to match their dresses.
Bob Fullerton of Neligh, brother of the bridegroom, served as best man and ushers were Kenneth Small of O'Neill and Gary Small of Hopkins, Mo., brothers of the bride. The bridegroom wore a grey business suit with a white carnation boutonniere. His attendant wore a blue suit with a white carnation boutonniere, also.
The bride's mother was dressed in navy with red accessories. The bridegroom's mother was dressed in green with black accessories. Both had white carnation corsages.
Immediately following the ceremony a reception was held in the church basement for 70 guests. Mrs. George Fullerton and Mrs. Harold Fullerton, aunts of the bridegroom, were in charge of the reception table. Those helping at the reception were Mrs. Lawrence Barnett, Mrs. Oscar Peterson, Mrs. Berle Waldo, Mrs. Vern Sageser and Mrs. Ernest Johnston.
Mrs. Kenneth Small, sister-in-law of the bride, had charge of the guest book.
The bride graduated from Atkinson high school in 1951. She taught district 245 last year and since moving to Missouri has been employed as bookkeeper for Rancho del Rayo.
The bridegroom graduated from Neligh high school in 1947. Before being inducted into the army in March, 1951, he worked on a ranch in Wyoming. He has just been discharged from the army, 19 months of his army service having been spent in Alaska.
