

O'Neill - Kramer
Nuptials at Greeley

The Sacred Heart Catholic church in Greeley was the scene of a beautiful wedding at 9:30 a.m. Monday, April 27, when Miss Margaret Noreen O'Neill became the bride of Paul Kramer of Stuart.

The double-ring ceremony was performed by Reverend Warner. The choir of Sacred Heart church sang.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, appeared in a gown of ivory slipper satin, chantilly lace fitted bodice, full-train and long lace sleeves. Her veil was a fingertip length with matching lace to the dress around the edges. The crown was of beads. She carried red roses and a pearl rosary—a gift from the bridegroom's mother. She also wore three-strand pearls and ear rings—gifts of the bridegroom.

The bride carried out the tradition of something old, something new, something borrowed, something blue.

Miss Catherine O'Neill of Greeley, sister of the bride, as maid-of-honor, appeared in a gown of powder-blue lace and net over taffeta. Miss Margaret Kramer of O'Neill, sister of the bridegroom, as bridesmaid, appeared in a gown of shirmp net over taffeta and her gown was fashioned with a satin bolero jacket. Both wore matching head bands and carried colonial bouquets of pink and blue carnations.

The bridegroom wore a light-gray-blue suit. He was attended by Orren Woods, Jr., of Greeley and Dennis Kamp of Stuart, who are friends of the couple. They both wore gray suits and the three wore white carnation boutonnieres.

Ushers were Gene Kaup of Stuart and Jack Smith of Greeley, friends of the bride and bridegroom.

The bride's mother chose a navy dress with navy and pink accessories. Mrs. Kramer, mother of the bridegroom, wore a dress of navy blue with matching accessories. Each wore corsages of pink carnations.

After the ceremony a three-course breakfast was served to about one hundred guests in the church basement. The breakfast was served by Ardith Stepp, Kay Podraza, Jean and Jane Woods.

In the afternoon a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents. Centering the table was the bride's three-tier wedding cake baked by Mrs. John McKenzie and Mrs. Junior Grossart. Also displayed was the bridegroom's cake baked by Mrs. Jules Dunolen. The table was decorated in pink and blue with candles at each end.

There were one hundred at the reception.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas O'Neill of Greeley. She attended school at St. Joseph's academy at O'Connor and has been employed in Omaha.

The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. John Kramer, sr., of Stuart. He attended school at Stuart and since has been farming with his father south of Stuart.

In the evening the couple entertained their friends and relatives at a dance in Stuart. For their wedding trip to the Western states, the bride chose a navy dress with red accessories. When they return they will be at their home in Stuart.

Out-of-town guests at the wedding included: Mr. and Mrs. John Kramer, sr., and Larry, Sylvester Kramer and son, Mr. and Mrs. Herman Kramer and family, Mr. and Mrs. Alton Hoffman and son, Mrs. Alfred Stracke, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hamik, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Wewel, Mr. and Mrs. Larry Hamik, Freddie Friedle and Paul Shald, all of Stuart; Mr. and Mrs. Al Hamik, Delores Hamik, Mary Jones and Jody Pudolick, all of O'Neill; Mr. and Mrs. Emil Tenpier and son of St. Paul; Marvin O'Neill of Omaha; Mr. and Mrs. Garth Travis of San Antonio, Tex., also other relatives from Lincoln and Grand Island.

Departing WSCS

Members Feted

EWING—Mrs. Waldo Davis and Mrs. Maden Funk were honored guests at a farewell party Wednesday evening, April 22, at the parlors of the Ewing Methodist church, given by the Woman's Society of Christian Service.

A dinner was served at 6:30 p.m. Mrs. Henry Fleming, president of the society, presented each of the honored guests with a gift.

Entertainment included games and contests in charge of Mrs. Earl Billings and Mrs. Anna Pollock. Mrs. Davis was the prize winner in the "sting" contest and Mrs. H. R. Harris won the Bible quiz. Mrs. Ralph Eacker's team won in the "going through the loop relay" and Mrs. Davis's group won the "glove and candy relay".

Mrs. Funk and Mrs. Davis, who have been members of the society for several years, are leaving Ewing, Mr. and Mrs. Davis, who have owned and operated the Eldorado theatre for several years, have sold their business to Mr. and Mrs. Elmer on May 1. Mr. and Mrs. Davis Kloepfer, taken possession are undecided as to their future plans, but will spend next month at Orchard, assisting relatives in business.

Mr. and Mrs. Funk and daughter, Alice, recently moved to a small farm near Inman.

Mission Society Plans Work Day

EWING—Thirteen members of the mission society, Mrs. Don Michelson, were present at the missionary meeting of the Free Methodist church. The group gathered at the home of Mrs. Walter Miller for a regular session on Friday afternoon.

Wednesday, May 8, was chosen as "work day". The society will meet at the home of Mrs. Melvin Napier to pack boxes of new and used clothing which will be sent to the missions in Kentucky. The used clothing is cleaned and also mended, if needed. A covered dish luncheon will be served at noon.

Mrs. Carl Miller, vice-president, conducted the business session in the absence of the president, Mrs. Bert Fink.

Mrs. Edna Lofquest was in charge of the lesson for the afternoon. The work of missionaries in Africa, India and other foreign countries was discussed.

Operetta Pupils Hike to Yellowbanks

EWING—About one hundred pupils of the Ewing public school representing those who presented the recent grade operetta, left school early Wednesday, April 22, accompanied by their teachers and held a picnic at the Yellow banks recreational grounds near Ewing.

They hiked to the grounds where games were played and a picnic picnic supper was served. Ideal weather favored this event. Children were accompanied by Miss Altha Lou Miller, third and fourth grade teacher; Mrs. Catherine Carlson, eighth grade instructor; and Paul Cooper, music director of the Ewing public school.

Gleaners Receive Sewing Instruction

EWING—The sewing group of the Golden Gleaners 4-H club received instruction on types of stitches at the home of Mrs. Bobbert Tams, leader, on Wednesday evening, April 22. Each girl was given cloth, needle and thread, making the various kinds of stitches as they learned their uses. Directions were given for making a needle case to be made at home and brought to the next meeting.

Another project to be started at home is making a belt. Group singing and refreshments brought the meeting to a close.

Seventeen members and one visitor, Beverly Rotherham, were present.

Wild Flowers Pictures Shown

The Elkhorn Extension club met Tuesday evening at the home of Mrs. Roy Lowry. Florence Schultz was co-hostess. The lesson on the care of your hair was given by Mrs. Bob Cook, leader. A Mrs. Helen Kreymborg, our county home extension leader, gave the lesson "Wild Flowers of Nebraska". She showed colored pictures of all wild flowers in parts of Nebraska and told each flower by real name. A film was shown of Hawaii, which was brought by Sgt. Phillip Simmons. Mrs. Dave Loy drew the guessing game. The next meeting will be at the home of Mrs. Dave Loy, May 12. A no-hostess dinner will be at 6:30. All members are asked to be there as this will be the last meeting for the club until September 8.

Blind Auction Is Being Planned

PAGE—The Golden Rule Project club met last week with Mrs. Harold Freeman. There were 15 members and one guest. Mrs. Wilbur Smith, present. Mrs. Dale Mutschallat and Mrs. Lorenz Riege presented the first half of the lesson on "Suds". After the business meeting, club sisters were revealed, each member wore an Easter bonnet of her own creation which was very entertaining.

A blind auction will be held at the next meeting when the club meets with Mrs. Harrison Hallman on May 12. Mrs. Freeman served a luncheon at the close of the afternoon.

The Merri-Myx club met Tuesday afternoon for a 1:30 o'clock dessert luncheon at the home of Mrs. John Osenbaugh. High scores were won by Mrs. C. W. Porter and Mrs. Paul Shierk. The guests present were Mrs. Arlo Hiatt, who won guest high, Mrs. L. A. Carter and Mrs. Ted McElhenny.
