

Doctor Completes Half-Century Page Physician Starts Practice in 1903

PAGE—Dr. E. J. Bild and his wife Wednesday received scores of congratulations from relatives, friends and from the medical profession as Doctor Bild marked the completion of a half-century of practice as a general practitioner.

Open-house was held at the Bild residence and their daughter, Mrs. Earl J. Rodman of O'Neill, was hostess.

Doctor Bild received his medical training at the old Sioux City College of medicine—a school that no longer exists. He first established a practice at Page in 1903 and remained there until 1916. The Bilds moved to Ireton, Ia., where the doctor practiced for many years, returning to Page nine years ago at a time when Page was without a physician.

The doctor will be 77-years-old next January. Mrs. Bild is 74. Despite the doctor's advanced age, he continues to look after the health of many families in the community.

Their sons, Dr. Charles E. Bild of Miami, Fla., and Dr. Elmer J. Bild of Wausa, spent the forepart of this week attending a medical meeting in Minneapolis, Minn., and reached Page Wednesday in time to take part in the observance. The Bilds' only daughter is Mrs. Rodman. There are four grandchildren.

Coffee Hour—The members of St. Patrick's Altar society enjoyed a coffee hour Monday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Edward M. Gallagher. Very Rev. Timothy O'Sullivan, church pastor, and the guild chairman were guests.

Jeudi Meets—The Jeudi club members met last Thursday evening at the M&M cafe for dinner and then went to the home of Mrs. D. A. Kersbrock to play cards. The winners were Mrs. Winnie Barber and Mrs. L. R. Sutcliffe.

Mrs. Kittie Edmunds of Rushville was a weekend guest at the L. G. Gillespie home.

Fox, Schaffer Senior Royalty

Larry Fox, twin son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Fox, and Elizabeth Schaffer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Schaffer, were crowned king and queen of the O'Neill high school senior class at the annual junior-senior banquet held Tuesday evening in the American Legion auditorium.

Other members of the royal party included Robert Carroll and Patricia Clinkenbeard, first attendants, and Ronald Bazelman and Lavonne iteck, second attendants.

The banquet was adapted to a navy theme. Toasts were given by Duane Booth, Warren Seger, Elizabeth Schaffer, Supt. D. E. Nelson, George Kilcoin, Prin. Joel Lyman and Eyalyn Asher.

Menu included: Shoving off, spouting whales, scrubbing the deck, rough waves, landing in port, sea foam, ocean rolls and black ocean.

Deck hands were Janet Seger, Marilyn Lindberg, Sharon Hancock, Janice Holsclaw, Janet Hull, Joan Godel, Owen Davis, Bob Sanders, Bernard Lorenz, Ed Ritts, Duane Alton and Edward Gatz.

The class sponsors are Mr. Lyman and Prof. Marvin Miller. Officers are: Elizabeth Schaffer, president; Gary Buckmaster, vice-president; Marlene Waring, secretary; and Dave Eby, treasurer.

Eighth Graders to Learn About FFA

All eighth grade boys who would like to take the vocational agriculture course offered at the O'Neill public school are invited to attend the annual eighth grade night at the O'Neill public school on Wednesday, May 20, at 8 o'clock p.m.

This program is sponsored by the O'Neill Future Farmers of America organization.

A complete program describing the FFA organization and the vocational agriculture course will be given. Refreshments will be served.

Parents of the eighth grade graduates are also welcome to attend.

Clement Stone, the vo-ag instructor, stated that it is possible to take the agriculture course at the public school even though a student plans to attend St. Mary's academy.

At Davidson Home—Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Ferris and family of Morsebluff were weekend guests in the Robert Davidson home.

To GOP Meet

Word has been received that John O'Neill has been chosen to represent the Creighton university Young Republican club as a delegate to the national Young Republican convention at Rapid City, S.D., in June. John is a first year student in Creighton university college of law and is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur O'Neill. He is also a member of the Creighton debating squad which took part in intercollegiate debating tournaments at the University of Nebraska, Midland college at Fremont, Colorado university at Boulder, and at the University of Wisconsin at Madison. He is one of four students to win certificates in the John Carroll speech club at Creighton this year.

'Oriental Garden' Banquet Setting

STUART—"Oriental Garden" was the theme chosen by the juniors for the annual junior-senior banquet given at the auditorium on Wednesday night, May 6.

The guests crossed over a bridge to enter the banquet room which was separated from the main auditorium by a replica of a stone wall and streamers in Oriental colors. Paper lanterns were hung from a ceiling of blue studded with silver stars.

A miniature volcano in the center of the room spouted incense during the evening. The table decorations were fans banked with sweet peas and candles on either side.

The Oriental statuette nut cups shaded by miniature parasols carried out the theme.

Miss Sereck was master of ceremonies and the welcome was given by Wilma Kaup, president of the junior class. The response was given by Shirley Shald, president of the senior class.

The class will and prophecy were read by Shirley Shald and Don Fuller. Others on the program were Superintendent Baack, Jay Pilch, T. L. Lynch, Marge Weichman and Denny Brewster.

The banquet was prepared by the mothers of the juniors and was served by 13 members of a sophomore class dressed in Oriental costumes and wearing coolie hats.

Lightning Blamed for Starting Fire

A bolt of lightning that struck about 9:45 o'clock Saturday evening was blamed for starting a grass fire on the Peters meadow, one mile northeast of the C Bar M ranch.

The O'Neill firemen were summoned at 10:30 by phone from the C Bar M, but the truck and other vehicles bogged down in the mud. Plowing checked the spread of the blaze, which was brought under control about 11:30.

Temperatures during the past week have been as much as 30 degrees below normal, which is 70. Early Tuesday thick ice was noted and snow flurries fell during the afternoon.

Precipitation during the week-end amounted to 1.26 of an inch.
