

CHURCH NOTES
WESLEYAN METHODIST
(O'Neill)

Rev. Melvin Groenbach, pastor Thursday, May 28 at 8 p.m.: We plan to show the film, "Cry of the Orient." This is a missionary film on Formosa and Korea, 65 minutes in length.
Friday, May 29, at 8 p.m.: Daily vacation Bible school program. We feel that the daily vacation Bible school is one of the most important responsibilities of the church. The program Friday night will give you an idea of what the children are taught in the school.
Sunday, May 31: Sunday-school, 10 a.m.; worship, 11 a.m. The 7:30 p.m. service will be in charge of the junior Sunday-school class. Evangelistic service, 8 p.m.
June 4-14 are the dates for the Elkhorn Valley Holiness association camp meeting to be held in the Wesleyan Methodist church. Rev. Fred Lester of Burlington, Ia., is to be our evangelist. He will be speaking in all the morning and evening services. Sunday services will be in the school auditorium. Both Sunday afternoon services will be missionary services at 2 o'clock.

ASSEMBLY OF GOD (O'Neill)

Rev. Wayne A. Hall, pastor
Saturday, May 30, street meeting at 8:30 p.m. at the corner of Fourth and Douglas.
Sunday, May 30, drive-in-theater service at 8 a.m.; Sunday-school at 10 a.m.; worship service at 11 a.m.; children's story time, 7:45 p.m.; evangelistic meeting, 3 p.m.
Monday, June 1: Bible study at Fred Lindberg home.
Tuesday, June 2: CA service, 8 p.m.
Wednesday, June 3: Bible study and prayer meeting, 8 p.m.
Thursday, June 4: Ladies' prayer meeting, 2:30 p.m.
The vacation Bible school is coming along fine. Our children need Bible instruction to meet the needs of life.
We welcome visitors and know you will enjoy the friendly welcome of those who love to worship in spirit and truth.

CENTER UNION (O'Neill)

Rev. Melvin Groenbach, pastor
Prayer meeting each Wednesday at 8 p.m.
Sunday, May 31: Worship at 10 a.m.; Sunday-school at 11 a.m.; young people's service and Bible study at 8 p.m.

Joan Steinhauser
Weds in Church Rite

STUART — Miss Joan Steinhauser, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Steinhauser of Stuart, and Harold T. Dobrovolyne, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Dobrovolyne of Atkinson, were united in marriage on Tuesday morning, May 19, at St. Boniface Catholic church.
Rev. A. J. Paschang officiated at the nuptial high mass, using the double-ring ceremony. The men's choir sang with Sister Vera at the organ.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown fashioned of candlelight satin. The fitted bodice featured a beaded Peter Pan collar and long tapering sleeves. The full billowy skirt was floor-length and fell into a chapel train. Her fingertip veil of imported illusion was attached to a beaded lace hair-hat.
She carried out the traditional something old, something new, something borrowed and something blue, and a penny in her shoe.
The bridal bouquet consisted of white carnations and Stephanotis with removable corsage.
Mrs. Harold Ohde, cousin of the bride, was matron-of-honor and Miss CleoMa Mauch of Fordyce, a cousin of the bride, and Miss Marvel Jean Johnson, close friend of the bride, were bridesmaids. Their gowns were floor-length and styled exactly alike of nylon net over taffeta — the matron-of-honor in yellow, the bridesmaids, azure. All wore matching half-hats, white nylon gloves, and carried colonial bouquets of white daisies.

Harold Ohde, friend of the bridegroom, was bestman. James Steinhauser, brother of the bride, and John Dobrovolyne, brother of the bridegroom, were the bridegroom's attendants. The men wore light colored business suits with white carnation boutonnieres.
James Friedel and Fred Dobrovolyne ushered.
The mother of the bride wore a gray shirtdress suit with white accessories.
The bridegroom's mother chose a suit of navy blue with matching accessories.
The grandmother of the bride wore a blue print crepe with black accessories. All had red carnation corsages.
A wedding breakfast for the bridal party was served immediately after the ceremony at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Steinhauser, uncle and aunt of the bride.
A wedding dinner for one hundred guests was served at noon at the Stuart auditorium. It was prepared by Mrs. Clarence Johnson, Mrs. Edwin Engler, Mrs. John Kramer, sr., Mrs. Karl Weichman, Mrs. Dwayne Lockman and Mrs. Dale Henderson.
An afternoon reception was held at the Steinhauser home for 150 guests and a 5 o'clock buffet supper was served.
The table was centered by a three-tier bride's cake which was baked by Mrs. Mervin Shattuck and decorated by Mrs. Edwin Engler.
The bride baked the bridegroom's cake and it was decorated by Mrs. Laurence Kramer.
Helen Engler had charge of the guest book.
Mrs. Dobrovolyne graduated from the Stuart high school and was employed for 1 1/2 years as a receptionist in Dr. Joseph Ramsey's office. Since September, 1952, she has been in the PMA office in O'Neill.
Mr. Dobrovolyne is a graduate of Atkinson high school. He spent two years in the army and since his discharge has been engaged in ranching with his father.
The couple entertained friends and relatives at a dance at the Stuart auditorium in the evening.
Upon their return from a honeymoon in the Southwestern states, the newlyweds will reside on a ranch southwest of Atkinson.
Out-of-town guests included: Mr. and Mrs. John Mauch, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Mauch and family and Mr. and Mrs. Joe Haverman and girls, all of Fordyce; Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Thoenes and family of Sioux City; Mr. and Mrs. Ivo Kathol, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Kathol, Mr. and Mrs. Addo Kathol and Mr. and Mrs. Alton Thoenes, all of Hartington; Mr. and Mrs. Gene Aden of Gothenburg and Roman Filipis of Crofton.
