

Mary Faulhaber Is 'Miss O'Neill'

Miss Mary Faulhaber, 21 (above), pictured with Orchestra Leader Don Shaw, Tuesday evening was chosen "Miss O'Neill of 1953" in a beauty contest and ball staged at the American Legion auditorium under the auspices of Simonson post 93. She won the title in a field of 17 contestants. "Miss O'Neill" will receive an all-expense trip to Fremont to compete in the statewide contest. Winner of the Nebraska competition will go to Long Beach, Calif., in July for a "Miss United States of America" and a "Miss Universe" contest. Miss Faulhaber, a bookkeeper, was a 1949 graduate of St. Mary's academy. She is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Faulhaber of Middlebranch. (Other pohtos on page 7.)-The Fron-

Catholics, Methodists Tell Pastoral Changes

Roman Catholics . . . Methodists . . .

recently the pastor of St. Mary's the Methodist church held at Catholic church at Wayne, will Hastings. to a new parish being developed on the outskirts of Omaha. helping launch the construction V. R. Bell, has been reassigned of a parochial grade school in to the O'Neill and Emmet par-Other changes in this area, an-

of the Archdiocese of Omaha, Rev. Paul Fangman, assistant at St. Joseph's church, Atkinson, to Platte county. Rev. William L. Kellingar, newly-ordained, to Atkinson. Rev. Charles J. Knippen of Butte to succeed Rev. Anthony Kluthe of Sts. Peter and Paul church, Bow Valley (north of Hartington). Reverend Kluthe goes to St. Bernard church, Om-

Rev. Francis Kubart, a native of the Atkinson community who has been assistant pastor at Sacred Heart church, Norfolk, is being transferred to St. Mary's church, Omaha. A farewell for Father Kubart was held Sunday night at the Sacred Heart gym-nasium. His mother, Mrs. Theodore Kubart of Atkinson, was present for the farewell.

Fire Victims Suffer Tornado Damage

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Sievers and their three children will not soon forget the spring and summer of 1953.

In February, during a winter snowstorm, they were made homeless when fire destroyed the dwelling on the A. B. Hubbard farm, south of Chambers, where they were residing. All of their personal effects except the clothes they were wearing were consumed.

The family this spring mov-ed onto a farm three miles west and one mile south of Neligh. Things were going fine in their new surroundings un-til 5:15 p.m. Sunday.

A twister hop - scotched through their farm and demolished two buildings. Destruction was so thorough no trace of the lumber has been found. The house was not damaged and none in the family was

Parker Seeking to Stop Paving in charge of the flowers.

R. H. Parker, O'Neill resident and real estate owner, has been 16 Will Report seeking signatures of property owners affected by proposed paving in street improvement districts recently created by the

Asked Wednesday by The Frontier how many signatures he had acquired, Mr. Parker indicated the progress of of a remonstrance action was not ready to be announced, but he was encouraged. Fifty-one percent of the property owners are needed majority of the real estate own- ble, Richard V. Willbern, Edwin on which also resides another following funeral services coners in the two districts (the four square blocks surrounding From Chambers — Charles D. about 30 years ago. the center of the city) are anx- Farrier; from Stuart-Larry ious for the eight blocks of pav- Krysl; from Amelia-Doanld R

Rev. Robert P. Hupp, a native of the Deloit community in nounced Monday at the conclu- James Urlaub, William Griffin, southern Holt county and until sion of the annual conference of Fred Saunto and Sam Fuhrer.

be transferred, effective June 13, Rev. Wallace B. Smith, who came to O'Neill about a year ago following the enforced retire-Father Hupp is credited with ment for health reasons of Rev.

Rev. E. G. Hughes will return nounced by the chancery office to the Atkinson church for another year; Rev. L. R. Hansberry will again serve the Methodist churches at Chambers and Amelia (with residence at Cham-

> The Ewing - Inman parishes, which have been served by Rev. C. C. Chappell, will be supplied. Rev. Marjorie R. Johnson has been reassigned to the Spencer and Bristow churches; Rev. Homer B. Hix has been reassigned to the Bassett-Newport churches, and Rev. Charles W. Mitchell will serve Clearwater.

Rev. Anna Nelson has been assigned to Lynch-Monowi. Rev. W. C. Birmingham, formerly of Atkinson, will return again to the Wisner - Beemer churches (with residence at Wis-

Other assignments: Rev. Carl G. Bader to Ainsworth; Rev. Carl F. McConnell to Neligh; Rev. E. A. Smith to Royal; Rev. C. Curtis Norlin to Springview-Norden; Rev. James E. Bell to

Rev. J. LaVerne Jay of O'Neill is superintendent of the northeast Nebraska district.

Bertha Doherty Dies at Lincoln

CHAMBERS — Funeral services were conducted at 2 p.m., Monday, June 8, at the Chambers Methodist church for Mrs. Bertha Doherty, 73, of Lincoln. Rev. George Basil Anderson of Columbus, assisted by Rev. L. R. Hansberry, were in charge of the service. Music was furnished by a quartette composed of E. A. Farrier, Tom Lambert, Mrs. Art Miller and Mrs. Ed Eisenhauer. Pallbearers were Glen Adams, Kenneth Adams, Glen White, Guais Wintermote, Ed Eisenhauer and Leo Adams.

Burial was in the Chambers Mrs. G. H. Grimes, Mrs. Clyde Kiltz, Mrs. Guais Wintermote and Mrs. Herman Holcomb were

for Physical Exams

Sixteen Holt county selective service registrants have been ordered to report for preinduction physical examinations on Tuesday, June 16, it was announced Wednesday by Mrs. W. H. Harty, chief clerk of the Holt draft from Schuyler.

Tabbed are: From Atkinson-Dean A. Mc-Connell, Robert Martins, jr., Many observers predict a big Edward J. Ross, Leonard L. Laiing and will encourage paving rather than obstruct it.

The city council has adopted Cadwallader.

Tucker; from Inman—Roland C. Cadwallader.

North-Central Nebraska's BIG Newspaper

O'Neill, Nebraska, Thursday, June 11, 1953.

PAGES

TWELVE

Seven Cents

Downey, 65, Photo Firm Owner, Dies

Volume 73.—Number 6.

Lifelong Resident of Holt; Funeral Rites to Be Held Friday

Charles Sumner Downey, 65, widely-known O'Neill photographer, owner and operator of the O'Neill Photo company, one of the city's largest business es-tablishments, died Tuesday afternoon, June 9, in St. Anthony's hospital.

Mr. Downey returned from a northern Canada fishing trip last Thursday evening, was stricken with a cerebral hemorrhage several hours after returning to O'Neill, and he lay in critical condition in St. An-thony's hospital for four days before death came.

The body will lie in state at the Downey residence, North Fourth street, from 10 a.m., today (Thursday) until the funeral hour at 2:30 p.m., Friday, June 12.

The funeral rites will be conducted from First Presbyterian church with Rev. Samuel Lee, church pastor, officiating. Burial will be in Prospect Hill cemetery under the direction of Biglin Artus, O. G. Cromwell, Kenneth ers and memorials are being received in behalf of the memorial funds of St. Anthony's hospital and First Presbyterian church.

The late Mr. Downey was born in the rural Star community in northeastern Holt county on December 31, 1887. His parents were Charles Emery Down-ey and Minnie Baluss Downey,

For more than 45 years the late Sumner Downey was in the photography business, starting modestly and developing the O'Neill Photo company into an extensive business operating in four states. His original studio was a tent and he employed a camera pur-chased from a mail order house. and he employed a camera purchased from a mail order house. He was a pioneer in the field of home photography and exploited the mette "your home is our students."

Vice-president, succeeding Early J. Rodman; John C. Watson was elected new second vice-president, succeeding Mr. Petersen. Woodrow Melena was reelectthe motto "your home is our stu-dio." He improvised his own flash lamps and equipment en-abling pictures to be taken in the home and used those methods until commercial equipment became available.

The late Mr. Downey was a perennial visitor in hundreds of high schools in Nebraska, South Dakota, Wyoming and Minnesota, taking pictures of senior class members and photographing various school activities.

He also was interested in photo studios at Rapid City, S.D., Brookings, S.D., Wagner, S.D., Creighton and Chadron. Survivors include the widow, the former Esther Beatrice Rustemeyer, whom he married September 14, 1929, at Ainsworth: the Nebraska Stock Grewers' tember 14, 1929, at Ainsworth; son — Charles Dean Downey, a Scottsbluff photographer; daughter—Mrs. Margie May White of Albuquerque, N.M.; brothers — Lee of Denver, Colo.; Randall of Sheridan, Wyo.; Maurice of El-Cerrito, Calif.; Mrs. Kenneth Pound of Blair, and Mrs. Wayne Cram of Alhambra, Calif.

(Continued on page 6) (Continued on page 6)

Margaret Jungbluth

CHAMBERS- Mrs. Margaret Jungbluth, 81, died at 6:20 p.m., Wednesday, June 10, at her home three miles west and one mile north of Chambers. She had been hospitalized at O'-Neill several days last winter but apparently had recovered. Her death followed an illness home at O'Neill pending completion of funeral arrangements. The late Margaret Bott was born at Mt. Polaski, Logan county, Illinois, November 19, 1872. She came to Holt county in 1905

She was married on March 6 1904, to Frederick Henry Jung- Veteran Barber

She made her home with her son, Chester, on the family place an Stuart barber, was buried Survivors include: Sons-Glen.

Ernest and Chester, all of Cham- a lingering illness, died in an bers; Ralph of Spokane, Wash.; Omaha hospital. daughters—Mrs. Arthur Carroll Survivors inclu a similar attitude with the result that the districts were established. Any formal objections will have to be filed next week.

Cadwallader.

From O'Neill—Guy C. Harris, Delbert R. Benash, Richard J. Boyle and Wayne J. Schollmeyer.

Cadwallader.

From O'Neill—Guy C. Harris, William Steskal of Atkinson. There are nine grandchildren. She also leaves one brother relatives in the complex of the co and two sisters.

CHAMBERS- Two cousins

day, June 1, from Lebanon, Asia Minor, for an extended

The boys, who speak and write both French and Arabic, came by plane to New York City and then to Minneapolis by air. They traveled by car with friends to Chambers.

the late Tom Salem of Amelia

Mrs. Paul Tallon, and son, Michael, returned with her for a and Chambers.

week's visit.

These boys are nephews of

Pallbearers chosen are William DeBacker Elected C of C President

J. C. Penney Manager Succeeds McIntosh

G. C. DeBacker, manager of the J. C. Penney company store for the past 14 years, Monday evening was elected president of the Chamber of Commerce or the ensuing 12 months. Mr. Depioneer settlers. Mr. Downey's father operated an early stage line between O'Neill and Niohis family, will succeed William McIntosh of McIntosh Jewelry. Mr. DeBacker has served several terms on the C of C board of directors and has been active in committee work. Don Petersen, proprietor of Petersen's Clothing, is new firstvice-president, succeeding Earl

John H. McCarville and Mr. McIntosh became members of the board of directors for three-year terms, and Neil B. Ryan, manager of the J. B. Ryan Hay company, will serve as director for one year to fill the unexpired term of Burl Munsell, former manager of Gam-bles, who moved to Kansas in January.

Other retiring board members are Joe Stutz, manager of the J. M. McDonald company store, and William W. Watson, manager of Osborne's Shoe Store. At Monday's meeting at the M&M cafe the group voted to sponsor 4-H club achievement day and Boy Scout activities.

The Chamber delegation to Discussion centered on an O'-Neill folder, which is planned and proposed oil mix on residen-Dies at Chambers

argaret Jungbluth

tial streets. A committee will be appointed to help prepare a folder and submit plans to the Chamber, and the oil issue was Secretary Laurence Haynes reported "good results" in preparation for housing air force wind test personnel later in the summer.

Miss Alice L. French reports that O'Neillites have proffered about 50 rooms, three apartments Her death followed an illness and one dwelling for military of about two days. The body was and civilian personnel. These fataken to Biglin Brothers funeral cilities, together with commercial hotels and motels, will be nearly adequate, Miss French says. Her office in the courthouse-county superintendent of public instruction—will be used as a "clearing house" for the housing of wind test personnel.

at Stuart Succumbs

STUART-Ed Siebken, veter-

Mr. Siebken, who had suffered Survivors include Widow; two

Miss Effie Stevens visited relatives in Page Thursday and

Take Heavy Toll Alvin Spence, 36, Expires in Hospital

Taken to Omaha, Suffers Stroke

ATKINSON — Alvin Spence, 36, single, son of Mrs. Frank Spence and her late husband, died about 11 a.m., Saturday, June 6, in an Omaha hospial. He had been taken to the hospital the day before by a neighbor, Ed Hoffman.

Ailing from high blood pres-sure, Mr. Spence is believed to have suffered a stroke, which proved fatal, after entering the hospital. He had been placed under oxygen. Funeral services were held at 2 p.m., Tuesday, June 9, from the Presbyterian church with Rev. Frank Payas officiating. Burial was in Wood Lawn cemetery in the family plot.

The late Mr. Spence, who was born and reared here, had been employed as a mechanic at the for Chambers Visit Galyen Motor company. Survivors include: Mother; sisters—Mrs. Weaver Bausch and of Joe Daas—Abdo Salem and Mrs. Clara Woodruff, both Atkinson: brothers — Paul and Lloyd, both of Atkinson. His father died several years ago. Pallbearers were Leo Penry, Woodrow Gilg, Edward Ries, Richard Osborne, Lester Andrus and Melvin Andrus.

BOARD MEETS JUNE 16 Next meeting of the Holt ounty board of equalization will be Tuesday, June 16, at the courthouse. (Official proceedings of the board's activities on June Mrs. O. W. French went to O-maha last week and her daughter, appear on page 4.) friends in Omaha and Columbus. Catherine.

Doctor Gleeson New Dentist Here

iniversity college of dentistry.

Following graduation, he spent two years in the Philippine flood reached Sioux City later university college of dentistry. two years in the Philippine Doctor Gleeson . . . newcomer.

Islands as a dental officer and was in private practice at Gree-ley for 18 months before being recalled by the army following the outbreak of the Korean war. Doctor Gleeson was stationed at Ft. Riley, Kans., prior to his recent separation from the ser-

His wife is the former Miss Margaret Donohoe of Bonesteel, Allen Martin is spending the S.D. They have four children: week visiting relatives and Ann, Michael, Patrick and Mary

A death-dealing tornado and a savage flood struck close-tohome this week. Eleven persons are dead at

Dr. Edward M. Gleeson, for- Arcadia, about 95 miles southmerly of Omaha and Greeley and recently released by the army's medical corps, announces this week the establishment of a dental office on the second floor of the Gilligan Rexall drug store of the Gilligan Rexall drug store building. building. Doctor Gleeson is a undate hundreds of square blocks 1946 graduate of the Creighton in Sioux City and claim at least

The flood disrupted most of Sioux City's wholesale, industrial and meat packing indus-tries and directly affects O'-Neill and other cities and towns in the region. High water from heavy rain washed out about 1,200 feet of Burlington track and moved out of position a bridge in the vicinity of Crystal lake, near the eastern end of the O'Neill-to-Sioux City branch of the Burlington. Service on that line will not be restored until about Sun-The Sioux City stockyards were closed down for at least 10

Meanwhile, O'Neill escaped he wrath of the weatherman but twisters, high winds and heavy downpours at Petersburg, Foster, Battle Creek, Neligh, Osmond, Wausa, Tekamah and various other points attracted interest

Two big power transmissions poles on the O'Neill-to-Belden Consumers Public Power circuit. were uprooted in the vicinity of Persons visiting in the Osmond, Pierce, Neligh and Elgin vicinities brought back tales of fierce damage.

Telephone lines were snarled at Clearwater and Battle Creek, disrupting connections between O'Neill and Norfolk and points east. Service was not restored until late Monday.

The "Voice of The Frontier's" radio "loop", linking the O'Neill studios with WJAG's control room in Norfolk, was knocked out and Monday's scheduled program at 9:45 a.m., could not be presented until 10:15 a.m., on Crop prospects in the O'Neill region continue good. Abnormally cool weather prevailed over the weekend and most homes and stores employed heating units to take off the chill.

Booth Transportation Lines, serving north Nebraska points between Sioux City and the Nebraska-Wyoming line, was forced to be idle this week because of flooding at the Sioux City terminals. Clarence Booth of O'Neill. proprietor of the firm, said he expects to resume service on the line by Friday.

Twice daily bus service each way between O'Neill and Sioux was not interrupted by flooding ed. The line used the Burlingson although some delays were causbus depot, which was not affected by the flood.

Other bus service in and out of O'Neill was normal. Week's weather summary, based on 24-hour periods ending at 5 p.m., daily, follows:

3 10 10 10
200				Hi	Lo	Prec.
June	4	25		84	70
June	5			70	50
June	6			58	43
June	7	-	-	64	50	1.25
June	8	2		83	52	.06
June	9	-		79	61
June	10			85	61
						-
Total					1.31

Mass Funeral Held

For Tornado Victims All 10 members of the Arcadia family killed in a devastating tornado near there were buried Wednesday afternoon during an open-air service at the cemetery. Ten persons, all member of the Mads Madsen family, never knew that a tornado hit the farm dwelling during a family reunion. All had been to church services in the morning and are believed to have finished the family dinner when the twister struck.

The Custer county sheriff said all buildings on the Madsen place were demolished. Mrs. Madsen was a cousin of Mrs. Mae Hubbard, Chambers postoffice employee. Those instantly killed were: Mr. and Mrs. Mads Madsen, am elderly couple. Virgil Madsen of Central City,

Mrs. Dollie Johnson, a daughter of the Madsens.

Mrs. Johnson's two children, (Contuined on page 6)

Tractor and Chains Help on U.S. 281

too, and queues of vehicles lined up because of The Frontier Photo crawling or bogged one-way traffic. Users of the

If you're planning a trip between O'Neill and Winnepeg-to-Mexico City international north-Spencer and there's a cloud in the sky better south highway are hopeful the socalled accelertake along a tractor — at last a set of chains. ated highway improvement program in Nebras-There's a stretch, beginning about five miles ka soon will bring about hardsurfacing of this north of O'Neill, where two petroleum transport road, which feeds western South Dakota traffic trucks were bogged down in mud Sunday and into the Nebraska highway system. Several had to be pulled out with state highway depart- years ago then Gov. Val Peterson promised hardment equipment. Other vehicles had difficulty, surfacing for 281 but the plan was scuttled.—

