Crawford-Whetham Nuptials in Home

The Theodore Crawford residence in Holt county was the scene of the marriage of their daughter, Miss LaDonna Mae, to Lloyd Arlen Whetham, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Whetham of Spencer, on Friday, June 5, at 2 p.m. Rev. Wilfred H. Henning officiated at the double-ring ceremony.

Miss Shirley Bentz of Dallas, Tex., sang "Because" and "The Lord's Prayer" preceding the ceremony. She was accompanied on the piano by Mrs. J. M. Pucelik of Spencer.

The bride's father entered to the strains of Lohengrin's "Wedding March" also played by Mrs. Pucelik.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown fashioned of candlelight satin. The full length skirt was nylon net over satin. The fitted bodice was lace over satin, Peter pan collar, and the long lace sleeves came to points over her hands. Her fingertip veil of illusion was held in place by an orange blossom tiara.

The bride's only jewelry was a matched necklace and earrings set-a gift of the bridegroom. She carried a colonial bouquet of white carnations and red roses. She carried out the old tradition—something old, new, borrowed and blue, and a penny in her shoe.

Miss Clynonne Crawford, sister of the bride, served as maid-of-honor. She wore a floor-length gown of Nile green taffeta. Miss Phyllis Whetham, sister of the bride, was bridesmaid and wore a floor-length gown of old rose. They wore nylon Juliet caps to match their gowns and carried colonial bouquets of white and pink carnations.

Stan Sedivy was best man and wore a brown suit. The bridegroom and the attendant Gary Whetham wore blue suits. All the men wore white carnation boutonnieres.

The bride's mother chose a blue and white nylon suit dress with white accessories and wore a pink carnation corsage. The bridegroom's mother chose a nylon printed dress with white accessories and also wore a pink carnation corsage.

Immediately following the ceremony a reception was held in the dining room for the friends and relatives. The three-tier wedding cake, baked and decorated by the bridegroom's mother, was topped with a miniature bride and groom. Mrs. Earl Moody cut and served the cake and Mrs. Willard Landholm poured. Serving the bride's table were cousins of the bride, Misses Wanda and Joan Crawford of Winner, S. D.

Miss Mary Whetham was in charge of the guest book. Miss Leta Ross and Miss Velma Crawford and family were in charge of the gifts. Mrs. Adolf Sedivy was in charge of the kitchen, assisted by Mrs. Gay Hull and Mrs. Frank Gehlen.

Mrs. Whetham graduated from Spencer high school, attended Wayne State Teachers college, and taught school in Holt county the past two years.

Mr. Whetham graduated from Spencer high school and since graduation has been employed by a construction company.

The couple entertained friends and relatives at a dance at the Spencer auditorium in the evening.

Upon their return from a short trip, the newlyweds will reside in Spencer, where Mr. Whetham is employed.

Guests included the bride's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Crawford of Redbird, and Mrs. Emma Miller of O'Neill, and the bridegroom's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Lang and Mr. and Mrs. Ed Whetham, of Lynch.

Guests from a distance were Phyllis Whetham of Omaha, Mrs. Helen Lewis and family of Bassett, Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Crawford and family of Winner, S.D., Mr. Melvin Harper and Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Orr of Dustin, and Miss Shirley Bentz of Dallas, Tex.
