

The Frontier Woman Peonies Admirably Lend Themselves to Various Flower Arrangements

By BLANCHE SPANN PEASE

Don't let the wild flower season go by without gathering some of them to use in the house. Wild roses are so pretty this time of year and, while they don't last long, they're very lovely to brighten up the house. If you have some peonies, pick them and put up to their necks in a bucket of cold water and set in the basement or cave overnight. This hardens them in and they last so much longer when arranged in vases. Peonies admirably lend themselves to various flower arrangements.

If you're tired of the same old bread pudding, and bread pudding is always so good this time of year, why not make a chocolate bread pudding for a change?

CHOCOLATE BREAD PUDDING

Two cups stale bread, four cups milk, 1/4 teaspoon salt, five tablespoons cocoa or three ounces baking chocolate, two eggs, 1/2 cupful sugar, one teaspoon vanilla. Soak the bread in the milk, melt the chocolate over hot water and add to the bread and bring all to nearly boiling. If cocoa is used, add it to the other ingredients. Beat the eggs very light, add to the sugar, salt and vanilla and stir into the bread and milk. Pour into a buttered baking dish, set in a pan of water and bake slowly in a moderate oven.

Rhubarb Pudding

One cup sugar, one cup sour cream, 1/4 teaspoon salt, three cups rhubarb (cut in 1/2 inch pieces), one egg, 1 1/2 cups flour, 1/2 teaspoon soda. Mix sugar and egg and sour cream together, beat until light. Sift flour, salt and soda together and add to sour cream mixture. Stir in

Vandersnick-Mitteis Rites Read at Ewing

EWING—St. Peter's Catholic church in Ewing was the scene of the wedding Thursday morning, May 28, of Miss Genevieve Vandersnick, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leo Vandersnick, and Lyle F. Mitteis of Venus. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Mitteis, also of Venus.

Rev. P. F. Burke officiated in the double-ring ceremony. The altar was decorated with lilies and a bridal wreath by Josephine Cole.

Mrs. Kermit Jefferies accompanied the choir who sang the "Mass of St. Aloysius," "Pani Angelicus" and "On This Day, O Beautiful Mother."

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a ballerina-length gown made with a charming lace bodice and a net skirt over satin. The short illusion veil was edged with lace and the bride carried an arrangement of lilies-of-the-valley and an orchid on a white prayer book.

Miss Winnie Vandersnick was maid-of-honor for her sister, Misses Laura Vandersnick, another sister of the bride, and Joan Thiele, the bride's cousin, were bridesmaids. They wore formal-length gowns in yellow, pink and orchid respectively and carried old-fashioned bouquets of pink and yellow carnations.

The bride's mother chose a dress of rose crepe for her daughter's wedding. Her corsage was violet sweet peas. The bridegroom's mother wore a gray dress with a corsage of pink sweet peas.

Joan Vandersnick, cousin of the bride, was flower girl and Robert Thiele of Clearwater was ringbearer.

Donald Vandersnick, brother of the bride, was best man and the groomsmen were William Mitteis and Lee Mitteis, brothers of the bridegroom. Pfc. Lewis Vandersnick of Camp Chaffee, Ark., and Merel Mitteis were ushers.

Mr. and Mrs. Martin Van Conet were hosts at their home in Ewing to the wedding party at a breakfast immediately after the ceremony.

A reception attended by one hundred friends and relatives was held at the parlors of St. John's Catholic church. Decorations were carried out in the bride's chosen colors of yellow, pink and orchid. The bride's table was centered with a wedding cake of three tiers, topped by a miniature bride and bridegroom. This was baked and decorated by Carol Vandersnick and Mrs. Carl Thiele. The guest book was in charge of Mrs. Merel Mitteis and the gift book, Laura Vandersnick, assisted by Winnie Vandersnick and Joan Thiele. Others who assisted with the reception were Mrs. James Tinsley, Mrs. John Bollwitt, Mrs. Joseph Thoenel, Mrs. Gail Boies, Mrs. Thoenel, Mrs. G. and Mrs. Frank Bohm. The waitresses were Geraldine Bauer, Bernadine Rotherham, Sandra Dierks, Judy Jefferies, all former pupils of the bride when teaching in the grades at Ewing public school; Patricia Bauer, Benita Bollwitt, Darlene Bollwitt, Patricia Vandersnick, Conita Bazelman, Geraldine Thiele, Carol and Elaine Mitteis.

In the evening the young people were hosts to their many friends and relatives at a dance at Summerland.

The bride is a graduate of the Ewing public school and has taught the past eight years in a rural school and the Ewing public school. The bridegroom attended school at Royal and has served four years in the armed forces. Since his discharge, he has been employed at construction work at Venus.

Mr. and Mrs. Mitteis will make their home on a farm north of Orchard.

Out-of-town guests were: William Mitteis, Mr. and Mrs. Merlin Mitteis and Mr. and Mrs. Hatten Peters, all of North Bend; Mrs. Paul Ellerbauch and Mr. and Mrs. Lester Ellerbauch, all of Hildebrand, Ia.; Mr. and Mrs. Peter Rose and daughter and Mrs. William Edward and children, all of Grand Island; Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Bayer of Dodge; Mr. and Mrs. Mayland Cass and family of Alliance.
