

Jeanette Taylor,
Jerry Tomjack Wed

EWING—St. Francis Catholic church in Neligh was the scene of the wedding Tuesday afternoon, June 16, of Miss Jeanette Taylor, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Everett Taylor of Oakdale, and Jerry Tomjack of Ewing. Rev. Roger Hayes officiated with the double-ring ceremony.

Mrs. Joseph Hansen of Norfolk sang "Ave Maria" and "On This Day, O Beautiful Mother." She was accompanied by Mrs. Dale Russell of Neligh.

Two altar bouquets of white stock and orchid carnations decorated the church.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown designed with a nylon lace bodice over satin with a net yoke. A double nylon net skirt was arranged over a satin skirt with a nylon lace inserted pleum. A white half-bonnet, edged in satin, held her nylon net fingertip veil. She carried white carnations centered with an orchid.

Miss Phyllis Taylor was maid-of-honor dressed in a gown made of white lace and nylon net. She carried white carnations. Bridesmaids were Mrs. Arlo Rice, Miss Luetta Haake and Miss Beulah Johnson. Marjorie Hopkins was flower girl and David Chestnut was ringbearer.

Richard Miller of Ewing was best man and groomsmen were Gene Tomjack, Richard Kallhoff and Donald Vandernick. William Warner and Keith Bartak ushered.

About 125 guests attended the reception held at the Neligh Legion hall after the ceremony. Those assisting with the reception included Mrs. Harold Carstensen, Mrs. Vern Johnson, Mrs. Floyd Kennan, Mrs. Axel Nilson, Mrs. Orville Miller, Mrs. Lloyd Smith, Mrs. William Ryan, Misses Geraldine Grubb, Roberta Harrison, Lois Hopkins, Donna and Marilyn Welburn and Carol Taylor.

When they return after a week in the Western states the couple will live in Ewing where Mr. Tomjack is employed by Shaw Oil company. The bride has been second grade teacher in Neligh public school the past two years.

Guests attended the wedding from Ewing, Tilden, Woodbine, Ia., Elgin, Oakdale and Norfolk.

June Is Dairy Month

Chicago TV actress Adrienne Falcon celebrates the advent of June Dairy Month and raises a toast to the U. S. Dairy industry with a refreshing glass of milk during a "break" in recent rehearsals. Dairy Month, June 1-30, a star in its own right on the American scene, is being staged for the 17th consecutive year by over 10 million Americans who gain livelihood from the production, processing and distribution of dairy foods such as ice cream, milk, butter, cheese, evaporated milk and dry milk. The dairy industry contributes annually at least 10 billion dollars to national commerce. Adrienne keeps trim by following the newly developed scientific diet for weight reducing, or ideal weight maintenance, which includes liberal portions of dairy and other basic foods in the menus.
