A coon was busy last week averting a poultry surplus around here. The "surplus" coon has now been eliminated but he can't be blamed for one chicken lost out of the back of a pickup. The wind blows and blows. Here's hoping it quits long enough to get my straw hat off the side of the house. I need it for the community picnic Sunday at Floyd Johnsons'. Don't forget the picnic.

The Frontier,
O'Neill, Nebr.

Dear Cal and George,
Please find a dime for the issue of your paper covering the Chet Calkins murder. Sure am glad they found the murderer, but it's too bad for his family.

When I first heard of Chet's death, I said, "Who could have done it and why?"

Your broadcasts were wonderful. I hope you won't have to make any more about murders.

Sincerely,
LYNN EISELE
Lincoln, Nebr.

Gentlemen:
Enclosed find check for $2.50 for renewal of Frontier to July 1, 1954.

Was very glad to read of the capture of the slayer of your former chief of police, Chet Calkins.

Also notice where you are putting a little pressure on the speeders your way.

You are getting out a very good, newsy paper.

Very truly,
GEO. W. DAVIS
Courtland, Kans.

I am enclosing a dime for which send me a copy of your paper which has a writeup of the McLimans murder case.

I lived at Norfolk for over 33 years and used to be a brakeman on the C&NW run through O'Neill.

I listen to WJAG, Norfolk. Thanks,
