Jehovah Witnesses

Converging on N.Y.

Clearwater, O'Neill, Stuart and Newport will be represented by a delegation of witnesses from the international convention of Jehovah's Witnesses, Yankee stadium, New York.

Carl F. Andersen, presiding minister and head of the north-Nebbraska delegation, announced that the group will travel by car to join more than 125,000 other witnesses of Jehovah in their eight-day convention opening July 19.

Mr. Andersen pointed out that Jehovah's Witnesses are coming from every state in the Union and nearly 100 countries to participate in the largest religious convention ever to be held in America. Chartered planes carrying delegates from Africa, Europe and Latin America will soon converge on New York. Large delegations from Australia, New Zealand, South Africa and the Orient are already on the high seas. Some 18,000 Canadians are expected.

Pruden, Rotherham to Columbus Meet

EWING—Homemaking, not fireworks, will be on the minds of 21 teenage Nebraska girls who will celebrate the Fourth of July while attending the seventh national meeting of the Future Homemakers of America at Columbus, O., July 3-6.

Miss Fern Pruden of Ewing, instructor of vocational homemaking in the Ewing public school, has been selected as one of the two teachers of the state of Nebraska to attend. During the five years of Miss Pruden's teaching career, spent at Neligh, Bartlett and Ewing, each FHA chapter under her supervision has been an honor chapter. In Bartlett, she was instrumental in organizing the home making department. She is an honorary member of the Nebraska FHA and served two terms on the state advisory board. She is also advisor for district 6.

On her arrival in Columbus, Miss Pruden will be advisor consultant to a group of 100 delegates from every section of the U.S., on the topic "Our Share in Our Homes."

Miss Helen Rotherham, a student of the Ewing high school and a member of Miss Pruden's class, will also go as a delegate to the national meeting. In FHA, she has acted as local treasurer, and as secretary of district 6.

She is a candidate for the state treasurer of the FHA and was elected vice-president of the local chapter for the coming year.

"Homes for America's Future" is the theme of the convention which will be attended by 2,000 delegates, representing a national membership of 370,000.

The lucky delegates selected to represent Nebraska's 3,031 Future Homemakers in 80 chapters are: Sally Anstine of Seward, Joyce Buckner of Fremont, Lois McDonald of Genoa, Alys Ann Fritchman of Chappell, Janet Grothe of Tekamah, Barbara Hoett of Genoa, Marlene Hynek of North Bend, Carol Jean Jelinek of Wilbur, Luellen Johns of Burwell, Leona Karpisek of North Bend, Marilyn Knauts of Cozad, Kay March of Cozad, May Ann MacDonald of Lincoln, Roene Malcolm of Cozad, Helen Rotherham of Ewing, Phyllis Schultz of Lincoln, Charlotte Sorensen of Nebraska City, Sharon Stear of Cozad, Janet Stillahan of Seward, Margaret Toman of Plattsmouth, Jane Wunderlich of Burwell. Besides Miss Pruden, the youthful group will be accompanied by Miss Lillian Schmidt, state advisor, and Catherine Rebbe of North Bend, local advisor.

Up-and-At-It Clubbers Honor Father—

The members of the Up and At It 4-H club honored their fathers at a special father's day meeting Sunday, June 21, at the Pierson home.

Each member was to wear something of their father's for roll call. One charter father, Lloyd Whaley, was present.

During the meeting we discussed the 4-H club camp and two of our members, Eddie Pierson and Marvin Young, have decided to go. Plans for demonstration day were also made. 4-H Achievement certificates were handed out and the club received two seals. Patterns, which were ordered were also handed out.

Judy Sanders and Patty Pierson gave a demonstration entitled "Making Bird Feeders," and Laurine Schmitz gave one entitled "Making a Killing Jar."

The next meeting will be a special work meeting at the Walter Young home, July 5.

Pavement Dancing—

The Square dance club met Monday evening on the new pavement east of the New Outlaw store. They have decided to continue their meetings through the summer. The next meeting will be at the same place, July 13. Mr. and Mrs. Axel Harding and Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Berg were on the coffee committee.
