

110 Participate in Black Angus Tour

One hundred and ten persons representing various communities throughout eastern Nebraska participated in the two-day tour of commercial and registered Aberdeen-Angus farms and ranches held over the weekend.

The caravan moved out of Page at 10 a.m. Saturday and wound up at the Ray Garwood ranch at Swan lake at 4 p.m. Saturday. The affair was jointly sponsored by the Northeast Nebraska Aberdeen-Angus Breeders' association and the Holt County Aberdeen-Angus Breeders' association.

A spokesman for the host group said most eastern Nebraskans were impressed with the sandhills and were thrilled with viewing large haying equipment in action.

An amateur race sponsored by the Sand Hill Billies 4-H club in southwest Holt climaxed the event. The caravaners came from Dakota City on the east, Blair on the southeast, and DeWitt on the south. There were persons in the tour also from Colorado, South Dakota and one group from Valentine.
