Corporal Latzel has served six months in Korea with the 176th AFA batallion, which is located on the east-central front, and which has been active in fighting for many key outposts along this front. Special tribute was given to all drivers who were forced to turn back on a narrow treacherous mountain road without having any mishaps. Corporal Latzel was the driver of the first vehicle that made this turn. His wife, residing at O'Neill, and relatives at Ewing last heard from him in a letter written July 26 -a few hours before the signing of the truce. His address: Cpl. Adolph L.
