Memorial Gift for Ewing Church

EWING—A covered dish 1 o'clock dinner was enjoyed by the congregation of the Ewing Methodist church on Sunday. This was served in the church parlors where long tables laden with food, including platters of fried chicken, were arranged. The afternoon was spent informally. This get-together on the second Sunday of the month is sponsored by the Upper Room club made up of young married couples and their families. It is growing in popularity and is anticipated with pleasure each month.

A memorial gift was given by M. H. Dierks and family to the Ewing Methodist church on Sunday during the worship hour, honoring the wife and mother, Mrs. Letha Dierks, who died about three years ago.

Charles Mitchell, acting pastor, conducted the service. Mrs. Alice Crellin, a friend and neighbor of the Dierks family, made the presentation of the altar railing.

The congregation accepted the gift in unison. This was followed by the dedicatory prayer by the acting pastor.

Mrs. Dierks was a member of the Ewing Methodist church for over 50 years, taking active part in all affairs as long as her health permitted. For 25 years, she was Sunday-school superintendent, with an almost perfect record of attendance during this period.

Mrs. Clarence Booth and Miss Ariene Kilpatrick departed Saturday for Wichita, Kans., where they spent the weekend with relatives.
