Ruther-Obermire Nuptials at Stuart

STUART — Wilhelmina Irene Ruther, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Ruther of Chiquicamata, Chile, was united in marriage with John Paul Obermire, son of Mr. and Mrs. G. L. Obermire, on Saturday, September 5 at St. Boniface Catholic church with a crown nuptial high mass.

The double-ring ceremony was performed by Rev. A. J. Paschang.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a floor length gown of candlelight satin and chantilly lace.

The fitted bodice had a deep scoop neckline with long fitted sleeves. The snug satin midriff extended into a deep soft drape effect in front and with a gathered bustle in back. The satin was completely edged with a deep flounce of pleated tulle.

The flared lace skirt was very full.

A shoulder length tiered veil of imported french bridal illusion cascaded from her little open crown bonnet of lace trimmed with seed pearls. She carried a bouquet of American beauty roses centered with gardenias.

The bride carried out the tradition of something old, something new, something borrowed, and blue with a penny in her shoe.

The bride's maids, Miss Mary Obermire of Lincoln, sister of the groom, Miss Shirley Brinkmeyer of Portland and Miss Eunice Pultz of Scribner wore floor-length dresses of satin and net skirts in aqua blue, rose and gold and carried roses.

Cheryl Obermire, sister of the bridegroom, as flower girl wore a floor-length aqua colored dress and carried a colonial bouquet. Chickie Ruther of Bassett was ring bearer. Joe Obermire served his brother as bestman.

Ushers were Maurice Norton of Elgin and Gene Ruther of Bassett. They wore business suits with white carnation boutonniere.

The brides' and bridegroom's mothers were dressed in grey with red accessories and each wore a red rose corsage.

The wedding breakfast was served to the wedding party and Rev. Paschang at the home of the bridegroom's grandmother, Mrs. Mary Henning in Atkinson.

A dinner was served at 1:30 at the auditorium.

The six-tier bride's cake was baked and decorated by the bride's mother and topped with a miniature bride and bridegroom.

The bridegroom's cake was baked by Mrs. Frank Ruther.

The couple presented a dance that evening for their friends at the auditorium.

It Happened In NEBRASKA---

Nebraska City in the 1850's was little more than an Indian country trading post. Soon this primitive log settlement was to feel the strife of the antislavery issue, as John Brown smuggled slaves along this route for their escape to the North. What trying days for a young, new city!

Since then, along with our cities, the tavern industry has "come of age." Today Nebraska taverns are conducted the same as any other business—with sales and conduct reflecting the wishes of the community, and the laws.
