14 from Area Going to Omaha Assembly

Jehovah's Witnesses will hold a Christian assembly at the Omaha city auditorium, 15th and Howard streets, October 16, 17, 18. C. Rieger of Brooklyn, N.Y., will preside at the assembly which will have its theme "Publish the Word of Jehovah."
 Carl F. Andersen, presiding minister at O'Neill, stated: "The purpose of the assembly is to aid one in practical Christian living in these troublous times. The assembly is open to the public and is free."
 The principal talk of the assembly will be Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock when Mr. Rieger will speak on the subject: "What Is Your Destiny?" The first session begins Friday evening at 7 o'clock at which time Mr. Rieger will deliver the keynote address. Jehovah's Witnesses annually report a worldwide increase of about 25 percent in the number of members. Mr. Andersen says Saturday afternoon at 1:30 o'clock an immersion of students into the ministry of Jehovah's Witnesses will be conducted.
 Over 600 people are expected from eastern and central Nebraska. There will be 14 going there from O'Neill, Clearwater, Stuart and Newport.
